The Lord's Prayer

OUR Father, which art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil: For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE

METHODIST SCHOOL

HYMNAL

Both young men and maidens; old men and children:
Let them praise the name of the Lord.—

Psalm cxlviii. 12, 13.

PREFACE.

THE earliest hymn-book for Methodist children was published by John and Charles Wesley. Since the year of its publication many changes have taken place in the Christian conception of the spiritual and ethical needs of childhood. The songs that satisfied our ancestors, and awed and instructed their children, would not satisfy the teachers and scholars of to-day. In more recent times hymn-books for schools, of a still better type, have been published by all the Churches. The Wesleyan Methodist Sunday-School Hymn-book, The United Methodist School Hymnal, The Bible Christian Sunday-School Hymnal, and Hymns of Light and Life will long be remembered for their high qualities. A comparison of earlier with later hymnals shows how great and gradual has been the advance in child hymnology. It would ill-become the compilers of this Hymnal to undervalue the labour of their predecessors. We build upon their foundations, and reverently use the choicest of their materials.

The necessity for a new School Hymnal has been for some time strongly felt, and has become increasingly evident. It is the natural result of quickened interest in the moral training of children. Higher educational ideals have created a demand for new Sunday-school buildings, for trained teachers, for perfected appliances, and consequently for a new hymnal. A teaching Church cannot lag behind the State. Teachers and children instinctively realize that their Sunday hymns must not be inferior in quality to the songs and lyrics of the Day School.

In recent years English literature has been enriched with hymns of exceeding beauty, set to melodious music. The simple child-song with truth set in gracious forms has come again to the Church. The new spiritual songs, with their appealing music, belong most of all to the children, and Churches cannot withhold them.

In the present Hymnal ample provision is made for those Primary Departments and Infant Schools in which the youngest are taught, and in which, among the picturesque methods of instruction, song takes so prominent a part.

Special provision has also been made for Secondary and Boarding Schools.

Senior classes, Brotherhoods, School Institutes, Wesley Guilds, and, in certain parts of the country, Adult Schools, have their own distinct needs. A section entitled 'Institutes and Brotherhoods,' together with an Index to hymns in the general body of the book, will, it is hoped, meet these requirements. On hymns of this class, as also on the type of music, the utmost care has been bestowed.

The book includes a complete series of Responsive Services for the great Christian Festivals, and also in varying forms for the Sundays of the year.

In the selection and grouping of hymns the compilers have sought to secure a just balance of subjects. Larger space, it may be thought, should have been given to hymns for special occasions; but this could only have been at the expense of sections more important in the ordinary work and worship of the Sunday School. Whilst fully recognizing the value of those ethical hymns which nurture character and inspire conduct, the compilers have not lost sight of the supreme value of the evangelical element in a collection intended for use in Christian schools.

It is some evidence of the increasing interest excited by Christian hymnology that authors and publishers are more insistent than formerly on a return to the original phrasing of their hymns. In several cases well-known verses will be found in an unfamiliar form, because permission to use them is given conditionally on the hymn being printed as written by the author. These corrections and restorations have, however, as a rule, enhanced the value of the hymns. In selecting hymns already published in the Methodist and the United Methodist Hymn-books, care has been taken to preserve, as far as possible, the same form of words.

The simplest and most modern form of punctuation and capitalization has been adopted. A few inconsistencies will be noted: these are attributable to the limitations imposed by copyright owners.

The thanks of the compilers are due to a considerable number of writers for original and hitherto unpublished hymns; also to publishers and others for permission to use copyright hymns. A schedule indicating this indebtedness will be found below. The Committee desire to express their warm thanks for the courtesy and ready consent of those to whom application has been made; for the invaluable service rendered by Dr. Julian's latest edition of his Dictionary of Hymnology; and to many friends who have assisted in collecting information.

The utmost care has been taken to ascertain the present owner of each copyright hymn. If any error has occurred, the compilers will be grateful for such information as will enable them to rectify mistakes in a later edition.

During a period of nearly three years representatives of the Wesleyan Methodist Church in Great Britain and Ireland, of the United Methodist Church, and of the Wesleyan Reform Union, have devoted their earnest attention to this service of praise and prayer. In all their meetings, whether in full committee or in subcommittees, the happiest relations prevailed. They now reverently dedicate their work to God, praying that the blessing it has brought to their fellowship may be multiplied a hundredfold in the schools and homes of Christian people throughout the world.

In the following schedule an asterisk indicates that payment has been made for permission to insert the hymn. A blank in the second column denotes that the author is also the owner of the copyright:—

We are indebted to Sankey's Songs and Solos, 1,200 pieces (published by Messrs. Morgan & Scott), for several Hymns and Tunes in this collection.

It is necessary to warn Sunday-school Superintendents and Choirmasters that no copyright hymn or tune in this book can be reprinted, in leaflet or other form, without the consent, in writing, of the owner of the copyright. We insert this caution because the permission to use certain hymns and tunes has only been granted on condition that valuable rights are thus safeguarded. Any infringement of copyright may involve legal proceedings and serious costs. It will, however, be found that publishers are always ready to give information and, on reasonable terms, to afford facilities for the use of their words and music.

All the compositions in the following list are copyright in Great Britain and Ireland, in the Dominion of Canada, in the Commonwealth of Australasia, in the Union of South Africa, and in all the dependencies of the British Empire. In many instances they are also copyright in the United States of America. An asterisk marks the tunes for the use of which a fee has been paid. A blank in the second column shows that the composer is the owner of the copyright.

The Committee desires to acknowledge with warmest thanks the generosity of composers who have specially written tunes and presented them to the Wesleyan Methodist Sunday School Department; and to those who have permitted the use of their tunes without charge. It is also indebted to its Musical Adviser (Mr. Charles L. Naylor, M.A., Mus.B.), and to the many friends who in various ways have assisted in the production of this School Hymnal and Tune-book.

GENERAL INDEX.

PRIMARY DEPARTMENT AND INFANT SCHOOL.

Praise.

	HYMN
Little children, praise the Saviour	1
Children of Jerusalem	2
Above the clear blue sky	3
Praise Him, praise Him, all ye little children	4
Little children singing	5
Ring, bells, ring	6
Little birds are singing	7
We're little, tiny pilgrims	8
We, O Lord, are little pilgrims	9
Jesus, I will praise Thee	10
Day again is dawning	11
I thank Thee, O God, for Thy care through the night ...	12
God is in heaven! Can He hear	13
Lord Jesus, be Thou with us now	14

God in Nature.

All things bright and beautiful	15
See the shining dewdrops	16
Children, have you seen the daisies	17
Little beam of rosy light	18
Where the reeds were growing	19
I love my little garden	20
As the little birds	21
I love to play among the flowers	22
The snow is fast falling	23
God sends the tiny snowflakes	24
O what has become of the birdies	25
Who taught the little birds to sing	26

Prayer.

	HYMN
Jesus, high in glory	27
Lord, a little band and lowly	28
Jesus, from Thy throne on high	29
Jesus ! Thou art good and kind	30
Jesus, the children are calling	31
Lord of little children	32
Jesus, who calledst little ones to Thee	33
Lead me to Jesus, lead me to Jesus	34
Jesus, Friend of little children	35
Gentle Saviour, ever nigh	36
Lamb of God, I look to Thee	37
The Lord attends when children pray	38
If Jesus Christ was sent	39
I often say my prayers	40
The morning, bright	41
Jesus, hear a little child	42
Thou who once on mother's knee	43
Gentle Jesus, meek and mild	44
Dear Lord, my little prayer I say	45
Jesus, tender Shepherd, hear me	46
Now the daylight goes away	47
Lord, when we have not any light	48
The day is done	49
Father God, I thank Thee	50
God, bless Thy little child to-night	51
O Father, bless these children dear	52

The Saviour of Children.

See Israel's gentle Shepherd stand	53
I think, when I read that sweet story of old	54
There's a Friend for little children	55
A little ship was on the sea	56
God who hath made the daisies	57
I love to hear the story	58
Jesus, who lived above the sky	59
Jesus, when He left the sky	60
When mothers of Salem	61
Tell me the stories of Jesus	62
Jesus loves the little children ! Once	63
Hark to the patter of footsteps	64
We know who Jesus is	65
Listen to the voice of Jesus	66
In our dear Lord's garden	67
Jesus loves the little children, Knows	68
God is kind ; He made the flowers	69
God will take care of you : all through the day	70
A little lamb went straying	71
Tenderly the mother	72

HYMN
Jesus loves me! this I know 73
I am Jesu's little friend 74
If I come to Jesus 75
When He cometh, when He cometh 76

Christmas and Easter.

Little children, wake and listen 77
'Twas a starry night of old 78
Once in Bethlehem of Judah 79
Away in a manger, no crib for a bed 80
The shepherds had an angel 81
Hark! the Christmas bells are ringing 82
The little flowers came from the ground... 83
Coming from the winter 84

Usefulness and Reward.

God entrusts to all 85
We are but little children weak 86
Little drops of water 87
If I had lived when Jesus did 88
O what can little hands do 89
God make my life a little light 90
Jesus bids us shine with a pure, clear light 91
Do no sinful action 92
Little eyes, young and bright 93
We are little sowers 94
Suppose the little cowslip 95
Little feet life's paths may tread 96
I'll hie me down to yonder bank 97
May a little child like me 98
O Jesus, we are well and strong 99
Jesus wants me for a sunbeam 100
I've two little hands to work for Jesus 101
If I were a beautiful, twinkling star 102
The fields are all white 103
Though to-day we are but children 104
Little travellers Zionward 105
There is a land of love 106

Cradle Roll.

Father, hear us as we pray 107
Once a little Baby 108
Father, now we thank Thee 109

Action Songs.

	HYMN
To and fro, to and fro	110
The birdie safe 'neath mother-wing	111
What are your hands for—little hands	112
Down came the raindrops on a cloudy day	113
Hear the pennies dropping	114
Where do all the pennies go	115

Dismissal.

O Lord, to-day we bid farewell	116
Our Sunday School is over	117
Good-bye, every one	118
And now 'tis time to say good-bye	119

GENERAL.

Worship and Praise.

Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty	120
Glory to the Father give	121
Seraphs laud Thee, God the Father	122
All people that on earth do dwell	123
Let us with a gladsome mind	124
Angel voices, ever singing	125
O worship the King, all glorious above	126
O praise ye the Lord	127
Jesu, stand among us	128
O Lord of all, we bring to Thee our sacrifice of praise ...	129
For the beauty of the earth	130
On our way rejoicing	131
Angels holy	132
All glory, laud, and honour	133
Now thank we all our God	134
Hosanna! be the children's song	135
Lord, Thy children, lowly bending	136
Children's voices, ever singing	137
Fill Thou my life, O Lord my God	138
Sing to the Lord above	139
My God, I thank Thee, who hast made	140
My God, my King	141
Let all the world in every corner sing	142
The God of Abraham praise...	143
I thank Thee, Lord, for life	144
Singing from the mountain spring	145

HYMN
O happy days which Thou, dear Lord, hast given 146
Praise, my soul, the King of heaven 147
To Thee, my God and Saviour 148
Sing to the Lord a joyful song 149

God the Father.

O heavenly King, look down from above 150
The God that rules on high 151
A gladsome hymn of praise we sing 152
O love of God, how strong and true 153
Father, Thine everlasting grace 154
My God, how wonderful Thou art 155
We come unto our fathers' God 156
Eternal Light! eternal Light 157
Almighty God, receive 158
The Lord our God is strong to save 159
O Love that wilt not let me go 160
Father, lead me day by day 161
O blessèd Lord, to Thee we bow 162
Father, O hear us, seeking now to praise Thee 163

God in Nature.

All things praise Thee, Lord most High 164
There is a book who runs may read 165
Ye spirits celestial, His throne who are nighest 166
All things which live below the sky 167
There 's not a tint that paints the rose 168
All that 's good, and great, and true 169
The voices of the spring, O Lord 170
A song of spring once more we sing 171
Summer suns are glowing 172
Winter reigneth o'er the land 173

The Lord Jesus Christ.

PRAISE TO HIS NAME.

O for a thousand tongues to sing 174
When morning gilds the skies 175
In the name of Jesus 176
Come, let us join our cheerful songs 177
All hail the power of Jesu's name 178
My heart and voice I raise 179
Jesu, Lover of my soul 180
How sweet the name of Jesus sounds 181
Jesu, the very thought of Thee 182
Come, let us sing of Jesus 183

	HYMN
Immortal Love, for ever full	184
Shepherd of tender youth	185
Far round the world Thy children sing their song	186
As shadows cast by cloud and sun	187

BIRTH AND INCARNATION.

Hark! the herald-angels sing	188
Christians, awake, salute the happy morn	189
O come, all ye faithful	190
(Alternative version)
Once in royal David's city	191
While shepherds watched their flocks by night	192
In the field with their flocks abiding	193
O little town of Bethlehem	194
It came upon the midnight clear	195
Cradled in a manger, meanly	196
There came a little Child to earth	197
Sweetly sang the angels	198
Ring the bells, the Christmas bells	199
O'er Bethlehem's hill, in time of old	200
Brightest and best of the sons of the morning	201
As with gladness men of old	202
Like silver lamps in a distant shrine	203
Arise, arise! the morning bells	204
See! amid the winter's snow	205
Saviour, who wast once a child	206
We sing a song of Christmas-time	207

LIFE AND MINISTRY.

Praise to the Holiest in the height	208
Tell me the old, old story	209
Thou didst leave Thy throne	210
Behold a little Child	211
Wise men, seeking Jesus	212
We saw Thee not when Thou didst come	213
O Son of Man, who camest	214
Who is this, so weak and helpless	215
Fierce raged the tempest o'er the deep	216
The morning breezes softly blow	217
It is a thing most wonderful	218
By Thy wondrous condescension	219

THE GOOD SHEPHERD.

The Lord 's my Shepherd, I'll not want	220
The King of love my Shepherd is	221
Jesus is our Shepherd	222
I was a wandering sheep	223
I met the good Shepherd	224
I was wandering and weary	225
There were ninety and nine that safely lay	226

THE FRIEND AND SAVIOUR OF CHILDREN.

	HYMN
When, His salvation bringing	227
A crowd fills the court of the temple	228
Come, praise your Lord and Saviour	229
I've found a Friend; O such a Friend	230
What a friend we have in Jesus	231
I could not do without Thee	232
I lay my sins on Jesus	233
O my Saviour, hear me	234
One there is above all others	235
The Master has come over Jordan	236
I am not skilled to understand	237
Guide me in the upward way	238
O what has Jesus done for me	239
Lover of children, I come to Thee	240
Jesus is near you! His presence each day	241
O Jesus, I have promised	242
Man of Sorrows!—what a name	243

THE CROSS OF CHRIST.

Behold the Saviour of mankind	244
When I survey the wondrous cross	245
There is a green hill far away	246
O come and mourn with me awhile	247
We sing the praise of Him who died	248
Beneath the cross of Jesus	249
Jesus the crucified pleads for me	250
While at the cross by faith I stand	251
O perfect life of love	252
Rock of Ages, cleft for me	253
For ever here my rest shall be	254
My faith looks up to Thee	255

RESURRECTION, ASCENSION, AND GLORY.

Christ the Lord is risen to-day	256
On wings of living light	257
Ye humble souls that seek the Lord	258
Jesus lives!—thy terrors now	259
The strife is o'er, the battle done	260
Low in the grave He lay	261
O come, let us be joyful	262
Christ, our living Head, draw near	263
Hail the day that sees Him rise	264
The golden gates are lifted up	265
Hail, Thou once despisèd Jesus	266
Rejoice and be glad! the Redeemer hath come	267
Crown Him with many crowns	268
Sing we the King who is coming to reign	269

The Holy Spirit.

	HYMN
Our blest Redeemer, ere He breathed	270
Holy Spirit, truth divine	271
O Breath of God, breathe on us now	272
Breathe on me, Breath of God	273
Holy Spirit, hear us	274
Holy Spirit, give Thy light	275
When our hearts are glad and light	276
Revive Thy work, O Lord	277

The Scriptures.

Father of mercies, in Thy Word	278
The heavens declare Thy glory, Lord	279
O Word of God incarnate	280
Lamp of our feet, whereby we trace	281
The Spirit breathes upon the Word	282
Break Thou the bread of life	283
O how blest the hour, Lord Jesus	284
Guard the Bible well, all its foes repel	285
Lord, Thy word abideth	286

The Gospel Message.

Hark, my soul! it is the Lord	287
I heard the voice of Jesus say	288
Was there ever kindest shepherd	289
O come to the merciful Saviour who calls you	290
Who is this of whom ye tell	291
Come unto Me, ye weary	292
Christ receiveth sinners still	293
Jesus calls us: o'er the tumult	294
Who is the Stranger, kingly and kind	295
There's a Stranger at the door	296
O Jesu, Thou art standing	297
Behold a Stranger at the door	298
Come to the Saviour; make no delay	299
While on thy heart is falling	300
Art thou weary, art thou languid	301
Shall hymns of grateful love	302
Lord, I hear of showers of blessing	303
Lift the gospel banner	304

The Christian Life.

YOUTHFUL RELIGION.

By cool Siloam's shady rill	305
Hushed was the evening hymn	306
Grant us, O our Heavenly Father	307
The wise may bring their learning	308
A little seed lay fast asleep	309
The future belongs to the children	310

REPENTANCE AND FORGIVENESS.

	HYMN
Just as I am, without one plea	311
I bring my sins to Thee	312
Come in, O come! the door stands open now	313
We have not known Thee as we ought	314
Lord, who hast made me Thy dear child	315
Lord, Thy mercy now entreating	316
All our sinful words and ways	317
Eternal Sun of Righteousness	318
The world is full of singing	319
My God, I am Thine	320
My Jesus, I love Thee, my Saviour and Friend	321
I'm not ashamed to own my Lord	322

DECISION AND CONSECRATION.

O happy day that fixed my choice	323
Thy life was given for me	324
Just as I am, Thine own to be	325
O Master, when Thou callest	326
When Thy soldiers take their swords	327
Lord, in the fulness of my might	328
Give the first to Jesus,—childhood's golden prime	329
The Lord is King! I own His power	330
Your most melodious songs	331
Earth's ten thousand voices	332
True-hearted, whole-hearted, faithful, and loyal	333
Nearer, my God, to Thee	334
Take my life, and let it be	335
Saviour, while my heart is tender	336
I belong to Jesus	337
Thine for ever! God of love	338
To Thee, O God, our hearts we raise	339

TRUST AND PEACE.

Who puts his trust	340
My Father, Thou art near	341
I need Thee every hour	342
I am trusting Thee, Lord Jesus	343
Jesus, my Lord	344
When I survey life's varied scene	345
Show me the way, O Lord	346
Jesus was teaching in tender tones	347
Jesus, I will trust Thee	348
Hold Thou my hand! so weak I am, and helpless	349
Lord, for to-morrow and its needs	350
Did you hear the angry word	351
When we walk with the Lord	352

PRAYER.

	HYMN
Prayer is the soul's sincere desire	353
From every stormy wind that blows	354
Go when the morning shineth	355
Pray, children, pray	356
'Tis not to ask for gifts alone	357
God of pity, God of grace	358
Jesu, meek and gentle	359
Love divine, all loves excelling	360
Holy, loving Saviour	361
O for a heart to praise my God	362
The roseate hues of early dawn	363
Jesus, King of Glory	364
In our hearts celestial voices	365
Jesus, on this holy day	366
Abide among us with Thy grace	367

TEMPTATION AND CONFLICT.

Soldiers of Christ, arise	368
The Son of God goes forth to war	369
Oft in danger, oft in woe	370
Onward! Christian soldiers	371
Christian! seek not yet repose	372
A charge to keep I have	373
Stand up! stand up for Jesus	374
Jesus! and shall it ever be	375
Hark to the sound of voices	376
Content to come, content to go	377
O great Lord Christ, my Saviour	378
Take up thy cross, the Saviour said	379
With a shout of bold derision	380
When the wind is blowing	381
Believe not those who say	382
March on, march on, O ye soldiers true	383
Fight the good fight with all Thy might	384
Who is on the Lord's side	385
Hark, how the watchmen cry	386
Yield not to temptation	387
Life is opening out before you	388
Fight for the right, boys	389
Sound the battle-cry	390
Carry the standard bravely	391

CHARACTER AND CONDUCT.

Saviour! teach me, day by day	392
Master, speak! Thy servant heareth	393
Walk in the light: so shalt thou know	394
Gracious Spirit, Holy Ghost	395
Love is the key of life and death	396
Send out the sunshine, the sunshine of cheer	397

	HYMN
A little kingdom I possess	398
Saviour, let Thy law of love	399
Be not swift to take offence	400
Have you had a kindness shown	401
Here a little, there a little	402
If any little word of mine	403
God sets a still small voice	404
The still small voice that speaks within	405
Gird your loins about with truth	406
Dare to do right! dare to be true	407
He liveth long who liveth well	408
Speak the truth, for that is right	409
O that mine eyes might closèd be	410
A fitly spoken word	411
Though lowly here our lot may be	412
Be Thou with us every day	413
Aim high! thou wert not made	414

SERVICE AND INFLUENCE.

Go, labour on; spend, and be spent	415
Hark! the voice of Jesus crying	416
Work, for the night is coming	417
Forth in Thy name, O Lord, I go	418
Dismiss me not Thy service, Lord	419
O serve the Lord with gladness	420
The toil of brain, or heart, or hand	421
Work with all your might, boys; God demands your best	422
In sunny days, when all is bright	423
Listen! the Master beseecheth	424
We pray Thee, Lord and Master	425
Somewhere is waiting a blessèd work	426
Our Lord became a servant	427
O it is hard to work for God	428
Who calls Thy glorious service hard	429
With a right good will let us do our work	430
I bring no palm branch green	431
Teach me, my God and King	432
If you cannot on the ocean	433
Not to the barren shores	434
We give Thee but Thine own	435
Dear Master, what can children do	436
He saw the wheatfields waiting	437
Open the door for the children	438
Up, and do your bounden duty	439
Singing for Jesus! praising His name	440

PILGRIMAGE AND GUIDANCE.

O God of Bethel, by whose hand	441
Lead, kindly Light, amid the encircling gloom	442
Lead us, heavenly Father, lead us	443

	HYMN
Saviour, like a shepherd lead us	444
Children of the heavenly King	445
Brightly gleams our banner	446
Through the night of doubt and sorrow	447
Hark! hark, my soul! angelic songs are swelling	448
O happy band of pilgrims	449
Children stand on life's rough way	450
In the silent midnight	451
We are starting on a journey	452
Saviour, blessèd Saviour	453
We are passing on, they tell us	454
Forward! be our watchword	455
The world looks very beautiful	456
Jesus, still lead on	457
Father, let Thy benediction	458

THE FUTURE LIFE.

Around the throne of God in heaven	459
Safely, safely gathered in	460
Every morning the red sun	461
There is a happy land	462
The morning flowers display their sweets	463
Jerusalem the golden	464
There's a beautiful land where the rain never beats	465
I'm but a stranger here	466
There is a city bright	467
Ten thousand times ten thousand	468
The homeland! the homeland	469
How bright these glorious spirits shine	470
Give me the wings of faith to rise	471
For all the saints who from their labours rest	472
Hark! the sound of holy voices	473

Teachers.

O Thou who camest from above	474
Lord, speak to me, that I may speak	475
Lord of the living harvest	476
O Master, let me walk with Thee	477
How blessèd, from the bonds of sin	478
Lord of the reapers, hear our lowly pleading	479
Shine Thou upon us, Lord	480

Foreign Missions.

Jesus shall reign where'er the sun	481
Hail to the Lord's anointed	482
Thou whose almighty word	483
From Greenland's icy mountains	484
There's a light upon the mountains	485

	HYMN
From the eastern mountains	486
Christ for the world! we sing	487
I hear ten thousand voices singing	488
From north and south, and east and west	489
We've a story to tell to the nations	490
See how great a flame aspires	491
A cry, as of pain	492
They are calling, ever calling	493
I often think of heathen lands	494
Saviour, sprinkle many nations	495
Coming, coming, yes, they are	496

Morning and Evening.

Awake, my soul, and with the sun	497
Christ, whose glory fills the skies	498
O timely happy, timely wise	499
Morning comes with light all-cheering	500
My soul, awake	501
Sweetly the holy hymn	502
The sun is on the land and sea	503
O Father, hear my morning prayer	504
Early come, Thou good Lord Jesus	505
Day's awake	506
Glory to Thee, my God, this night	507
Abide with me! fast falls the eventide	508
Now the day is over	509
Sun of my soul, Thou Saviour dear	510
Know ye that the setting sun	511
The radiant morn hath passed away	512
Ere I sleep, for every favour	513
God the Father, be Thou near	514
Now our day of praise is ending	515
Day is dying in the west	516
Lord Jesus, in the days of old	517
Round me falls the night	518
Father, now the day is over	519
Master, on Thy name we call	520
The sun declines; o'er land and sea	521

The Lord's Day.

O day of rest and gladness	522
Blest day of God, most calm, most bright	523
Again the morn of gladness	524
This is the day of light	525
Jesus, we love to meet	526
Jesu! Lord and Saviour	527
Sweetly dawns the Sabbath morning	528
Pleasant are Thy courts above	529

HYMN
The day Thou gavest, Lord, is ended ... 530
Sweet Saviour, bless us ere we go ... 531
The Lord be with us as we bend ... 532

The New Year.

Sing to the great Jehovah's praise ... 533
Another year is dawning ... 534
Father, let me dedicate ... 535
Standing at the portal ... 536

Harvest and Flower Services.

Praise, O praise our God and King ... 537
We plough the fields, and scatter ... 538
Sing to the Lord of harvest ... 539
Come, ye thankful people, come ... 540
The sower went forth sowing ... 541
To Thee, O Lord, our hearts we raise ... 542
O Lord of heaven, and earth, and sea ... 543
O Thou whose bounty fills the earth ... 544
Here, Lord, we offer Thee all that is fairest ... 545
Pansies, lilies, roses 546

Home and Travel.

O happy home, where Thou art loved the dearest ... 547
Eternal Father! strong to save ... 548
From homes of quiet peace ... 549

Temperance.

O Thou before whose presence ... 550
Amid the splendour of the spring ... 551
God save the nation ... 552
God bless the land whose coasts ... 553

Hospitals.

Thou to whom the sick and dying ... 554
Thine arm, O Lord, in days of old ... 555

Schools and Colleges.

Day by day we magnify Thee ... 556
Thou, whose feet once trod the way ... 557
Lord and Saviour, true and kind ... 558

	HYMN
We build our school on Thee, O Lord	559
Lord, we thank Thee for the pleasure	560
Hear us, O Lord, who art our boyhood's Friend	561
The hours of school are over	562
God, who of old hast formed the earth	563
O God, whose will divides our days	564
Lord, behold us with Thy blessing	565
The happy days have come again	566
Praise to our God, who, with love never swerving	567

Institutes and Brotherhoods.

Lord of all being, throned afar	568
God of our fathers, who of old didst make Thy people free ...	569
Young souls, so strong the race to run	570
Life, and light, and joy are found	571
Go forth to life, O child of earth	572
Gracious Spirit, dwell with me	573
Thou Lord of hosts, whose guiding hand	574
Hark! the trumpet-call of Christ	575
O God of hosts, whose power and might	576
We come Thy praise to sing	577
Speak thou the truth: let others fence	578
Lord of our lives, who hast ransomed us all	579
Give me, O Lord, right views of Thee	580
There are three lessons I would write	581
Look from Thy sphere of endless day	582
Make sure of truth	583
O Light, more light to shine upon my way	584
The light pours down from heaven	585
Thy hand, O God, has guided	586
Faith of our fathers! living still	587
Sons of labour, dear to Jesus	588
Work is sweet, for God has blessed	589
Courage, brother! do not stumble	590
God's trumpet wakes the slumbering world	591
And didst Thou love the race that loved not Thee	592
There is a fountain filled with blood	593
Far out on the desolate billow	594
Is thy cruse of comfort failing	595
O God of mercy, God of might	596
Help me, O Lord, to do my part	597
Say not, The struggle nought availeth	598
Dark lines of hills, a golden sky	599
God is with us, God is with us	600
Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord ...	601
City of God, how broad and far	602
These things shall be! a loftier race	603
Hills of the north, rejoice	604
Fling out the banner! Let it float	605

National Life.

	HYMN
God save our gracious King	606
When wilt Thou save the people	607
God bless our native land	608
Now pray we for our country	609
To Thee our God we fly	610
God of our fathers, known of old	611
Praise to our God, whose bounteous hand	612
Where the flag of Britain flies	613
Land of our birth, we pledge to thee	614
Once to every man and nation	615
King of the city splendid	616
Lord, while for all mankind we pray	617

Farewell and Dismissal.

Lord, dismiss us with Thy blessing	618
May God be near thee, friend	619
God be with you till we meet again	620
Ere we part, O God our Father	621

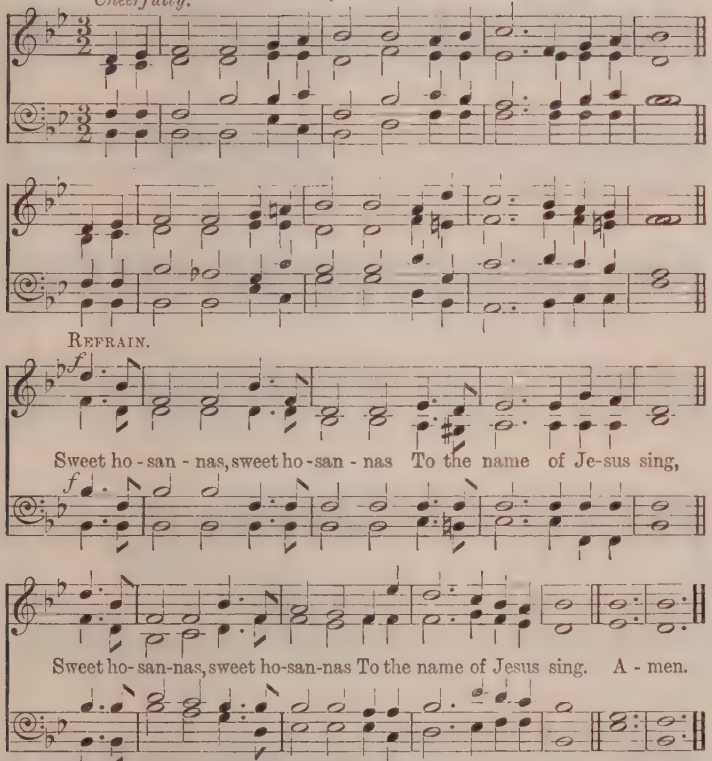
SWEET HOSANNAS.

Cheerfully. 8.7.8.7., with Refrain. W. BEST.



REFRAIN.
Sweet ho - san - nas, sweet ho - san - nas To the name of Je-sus sing, Sweet ho-san-nas, sweet ho-san-nas To the name of Jesus sing. A - men.

1.

mf LITTLE children, praise the Saviour;
He regards you from above:
Praise Him for His great salvation,
Praise Him for His precious love.

f Sweet hosannas
To the name of Jesus sing.

2.

mf When He left His throne in glory,
When He lived with mortals here,
Little children sang His praises,
And it pleased His gracious ear.

3.

mf When the anxious mothers round Him
With their tender infants pressed,
He with open arms received them,
And the little ones He blessed.

cr. Up in yonder happy regions
Angels sound the chorus high;
Twice ten thousand times ten thousand
Sound His praises through the sky.

f Little children, praise the Saviour;
Praise Him, your undying Friend;
Praise Him till in heaven you meet Him,
There to praise Him without end.

INFANT PRAISE. 7 7.7 7., with Refrain. Juvenile Harmonist.

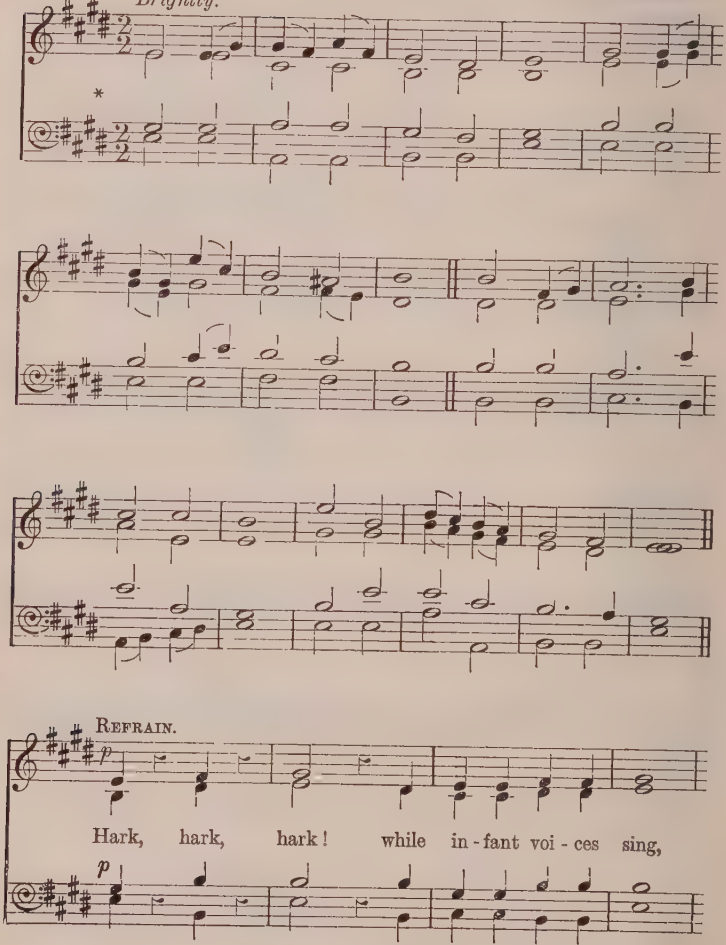
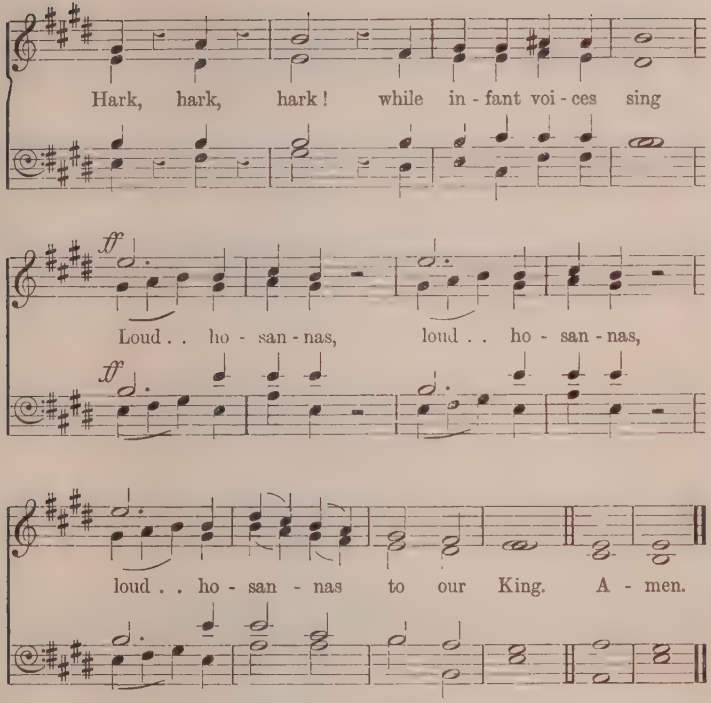
Brightly.



* For very young children this may be played in E flat.

Praise.



f 1 CHILDREN of Jerusalem
Sang the praise of Jesu's name:
Children, too, of modern days
Join to sing the Saviour's praise.

p Hark! while infant voices sing
ff Loud hosannas to our King.

mf 2 We are taught to love the Lord,
We are taught to read His Word,
We are taught the way to heaven:
Praise for all to God be given.

f 3 Parents, teachers, old and young,
All unite to swell the song;
Higher and yet higher rise,
Till hosannas reach the skies.

John Henley.

mf But God from infant tongues
On earth receiveth praise;
We, then, our cheerful songs
In sweet accord will raise:
Hallelujah!
We too will sing
To God our King
Hallelujah!

3.

p O blessèd Lord, Thy truth
To us Thy babes impart,
And teach us in our youth
To know Thee as Thou art.
Hallelujah!
f Then shall we sing
To God our King
Hallelujah!

4.

f O may Thy holy Word
Spread all the world around;
All then with one accord
Shall lift the joyful sound, ff Hallelujah!
All then shall sing
To God their King
Hallelujah!

2 Little children praying
God delights to bless,
All their fears allaying
With His gentleness.

3 Little children's faces
God delights to see ;
For they bear the traces Of His purity.

cr. 4 Little children's pleasures
God delights to share ;
For they are His treasures,
And they need His care.

f 5 Little children's gladness
God delights to know ;
He will banish sadness
From the clouded brow.

mf 1 LITTLE birds are singing
In the leafy trees;
Little flowers are waving
In the gentle breeze.

2 In the sunny meadows
There are lambs at play;
And the bees are working Gladly all the day.

3 Lord, Thy little children
Sweet as flowers would be,
Pouring forth the fragrance
Of our lives to Thee.

4 Teach us, well and gladly
All our tasks to do;
Let us always please Thee
In our playtime too.

f 5 Like the birds so happy,
We Thy praises sing,
While to Thee, O Saviour,
Little hearts we bring.

f 2 We're stepping ever onward,
We cannot stay;
But singing is like sunlight
To cheer the way.

mf 3 We have our little troubles,
But we can pray;
And Jesus comes, like singing,
To cheer the way.

4 We mean to follow Jesus
Through all life's day;
We've found how simple loving
Can cheer the way.

5 And if the way gets rugged
And skies are grey,
f We'll sing a hallelujah
To cheer the way.

6 So on we go towards heaven;
And every day,
By trusting, loving, singing,
We cheer the way.

mf 1 JESUS, I will praise Thee
For Thy love to me;
Make me kind and gentle,
As I ought to be.

mp 2 Thou didst come from heaven
Unto earth for me,
That I might be ransomed
And restored to Thee.

3 Teach me to be like Thee,
Doing good to all;
I will try to listen
To Thy loving call.

4 Help me to obey Thee,
And to please Thee too;
For I want to serve Thee,
And Thy will to do.

cr. 5 Thou art my dear Saviour;
I will follow Thee:
Keep me always, Jesus;
Come and stay with me.

f 1 DAY again is dawning,
Darkness flies away;
Now, from sleep awaking,
Let me rise and pray:
mf Jesus, tender Shepherd, Watching while I slept,
cr. Bless the little lambkin Thou hast safely kept.

mf 2 Help me, Lord, to praise Thee
For my cosy bed,
For my clothes and playthings,
For my daily bread,
For my darling mother,
For my father dear,
For the friends who love me
Far away and near.

3 Robin blithe is chirping,
Glad the night is o'er;
Larks the light are greeting,
Singing as they soar:
I'm Thy little birdie;
May I ever sing,
Goodness making music
Unto Christ my King!

4 Daisies now are turning Bright eyes to the sun;
And the light is shining
On them every one:
I'm Thy little flower;
Jesus, shine on me,
Turning all my lifetime
Grateful eyes to Thee.

p For some have been waking, and lying in pain,
And wished it were morning again and again;
And some have been waking because they were sad;
While I have been sleeping, and woke again glad.

3.

My Father, take care of me all through the day,
And make my feet always to walk in Thy way;
Bless those who are sick, and bless those who are sad,
And please let me help Thee to make them feel glad.

pp 1 GOD is in heaven! Can He hear
A little prayer like mine?
cr. Yes, that He can; I need not fear:
He'll listen unto mine.

pp 2 God is in heaven! Can He see
When I am doing wrong?
cr. Yes, that He can; He looks at me
All day and all night long.

pp 3 God is in heaven! Would He know
If I should tell a lie?
cr. Yes; though I said it very low,
He'd hear it in the sky.

pp 4 God is in heaven! Does He care,
Or is He good to me?
cr. Yes; all I have to eat or wear,
'Tis God who gives it me.

pp 5 God is in heaven! May I pray
To go there when I die?
cr. Yes; love Him, seek Him, and one day
He'll call me to the sky.

mf I OFTEN say my prayers;
But do I ever pray?
And do the wishes of my heart
Go with the words I say?

2.

I may as well kneel down
And worship gods of stone,
As offer to the living God
A prayer of words alone.

3.

For words without the heart
The Lord will never hear;
Nor will He to those lips attend
Whose prayers are not sincere.

cr. Lord, teach me what I want,
And teach me how to pray;
Nor let me ask Thee for Thy grace,
Not feeling what I say.

The Saviour of Children.

f 1 There's a Friend for little children
Above the bright blue sky,
A Friend who never changeth,
Whose love can never die.
Unlike our friends by nature,
Who change with changing years,
This Friend is always worthy
The precious name He bears.

mf 2 There's a home for little children
Above the bright blue sky,
Where Jesus reigns in glory,
A home of peace and joy.
cr. No home on earth is like it,
Or can with it compare;
For every one is happy,
Nor could be happier, there.

f 3 There's a crown for little children
Above the bright blue sky,
And all who look for Jesus
Shall wear it by-and-by;
A crown of brightest glory,
Which He will then bestow
On all who've found His favour
And loved His name below.

mf 4 There's a song for little children
A song that will not weary
Though sung continually,
A song which even angels
Can never, never sing;
They know not Christ as Saviour,
But worship Him as King.

f 5 There's a robe for little children
Above the bright blue sky,
And a harp of sweetest music,
And a palm of victory.
cr. All, all above is treasured,
And found in Christ alone;
ff O come, dear little children,
That all may be your own.

And if I try to follow
His footsteps here below,

mf 1 JESUS, who lived above the sky,
Came down to be a man and die;
And in the Bible we may see How very good He used to be.

mp 2 He went about, He was so kind,
To cure poor people who were blind;
And many who were sick and lame,
He pitied them, and did the same.

mf 3 And more than that, He told them too
The things that God would have them do;
And was so gentle and so mild,
He would have listened to a child.

p 4 But such a cruel death He died—
By wicked men was crucified!
And those kind hands that did such good,
They nailed them to a cross of wood.

mp 5 And so He died! and this is why
He came to be a man and die:
The Bible says He came from heaven,
That we might have our sins forgiven.

6 He knew how wicked men had been,
He knew that God must punish sin;
So out of pity Jesus said
He'd bear the punishment instead.

Sadly the children go,
Wistfully looking behind them,
Weeping for sorrow ; when, lo !
mf Jesus Himself speaketh tenderly,— Suffer the children to come to Me !

The Saviour of Children.

mp 1 A little lamb went straying
Among the hills one day,
Leaving its faithful shepherd
Because it loved to stray :
cr. And while the sun shone brightly,
It knew no thought of fear ;
For flowers around were blooming,
And balmy was the air.

dim. 2 But night came over quickly,
The hollow breezes blew ;
The sun soon ceased its shining,
All dark and dismal grew :
The little lamb stood bleating,
As well indeed it might,
So far from home and shepherd,
And on so dark a night.

mp 3 But, ah ! the faithful shepherd
Soon missed the little thing,
And onward went to seek it,
Safe home again to bring :
cr. He sought on hill, in valley,
And called it by its name ;
He sought, nor ceased his seeking,
Until he found his lamb.

mp 4 Then to his gentle bosom
The little lamb he pressed ;
And as he bore it homeward
He fondly it caressed :
cr. The little lamb was happy
To find itself secure ;
And happy, too, the shepherd,
Because his lamb he bore.

mf 5 And won't you love the Shepherd,
So gentle and so kind,
Who came from brightest glory
His little lambs to find,
f To make them, O so happy,
Rejoicing in His love,
Till every lamb be gathered

JESUS BIDS US SHINE. 10 11. 10 10. E. O. Excell.
Words by Susan Warner.

mf 1. Je-sus bids us shine with a pure, clear light, Like a lit-tle can-dle cr. 2. Je-sus bids us shine first of all for Him; Well He sees and knows it f 3. Je-sus bids us shine, then, for all a-round; Ma-ny kinds of dark-ness burn-ing in the night: In the world is dark-ness, so we must shine;
if our light grows dim: He looks down from heav'n to see us . . shine:
in the world are found— Sin, and want, and sor-row: so we must shine;
You in your small cor-ner, and I in mine.
You in your small cor-ner, and I in mine.
You in your small cor-ner, and I in mine. A-men.

mp 1 Do no sinful action,
Speak no angry word;
Ye belong to Jesus,
Children of the Lord.

2 Christ is kind and gentle,
Christ is pure and true;
And His little children
Must be holy too.

3 There's a wicked spirit
Watching near you still,
And he tries to tempt you
To all harm and ill.

cr. 4 But you must not hear him,
Though 'tis hard for you
To resist the evil
And the good to do.

mf 5 You are Christ's own children,
And must learn to fight
With the bad within you,
And to do the right.

f 6 Christ is your own Master;
He is good and true,
And His little children
Must be holy too.

mp Suppose the little cowslip
Should hang its golden cup,
And say, I'm such a tiny flower,
I'd better not grow up,—
How many a weary traveller
Would miss its fragrant smell!
How many a little child would grieve
To miss it from the dell!

Suppose the glistening dewdrop
Upon the grass should say,
What can a little dewdrop do?
I'd better roll away,—
The blade on which it rested,
Before the day was done,
Without a drop to moisten it,
Would wither in the sun.

3.

Suppose the little breezes
Upon a summer's day
Should think themselves too small to cool
The traveller on his way,—
Who would not miss the smallest
And softest ones that blow,
And say they made a great mistake
If they were thinking so?

mf How many deeds of kindness
A little child may do,
Although it has so little strength,
And little wisdom too:
It wants a loving spirit,
Much more than strength, to prove
How many things a child may do
For others by its love.

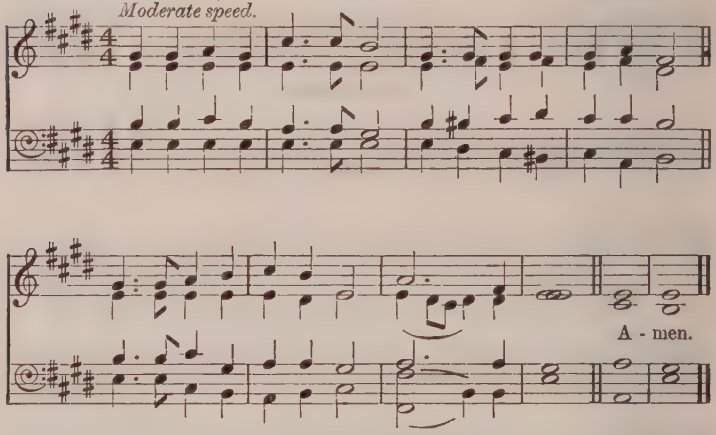
But ripple on my way,
And help the rills and rivers all
To make the ocean spray:
And I must haste to labour,
Replied the busy bee;
The summer days are long and bright,
And God has work for me.

3 If little things that God has made
Are useful in their kind,
O let us learn a simple truth,
And bear it in our mind:
cr. That every child can praise Him,
However weak or small;
Let each with joy remember this,—
The Lord has work for all.

VIGILATE. 7 7 7 3. W. H. Monk.



mp 1 May a little child like me
Follow Jesus faithfully,
And His valiant soldier be?
Yes, I may.

2 Does the Saviour for me care?
Does He see my falling tear?
Does He all my sorrows share?
Yes, He does.

3 When He hung upon the tree,
Did He really die for me—
Suffer, that I saved might be?
Yes, He did.

4 Will He hear me when I pray?
Will He wash my sins away?
Will He keep me day by day?
Yes, He will.

5 Should I not for lost ones seek,
cr. And to them of Jesus speak?
Should I help to Him the weak?
Yes, I should.

mp 6 May I love and serve Him well,

Worship and Praise.

f Seraphs laud Thee, God the Father,
In the sweetest, noblest lays:
Can it be that Thou wouldst rather Listen unto children's praise?
Yea; Thou hearest now our voices,
Children's voices though they be:
Take the glory each rejoices,
Lord of all, to render Thee.

2.

Cherubs praise Thee, God the Saviour,
In sublimest strains above:
Wilt Thou grant to us Thy favour,
And accept of children's love?
Thou art listening to our singing,
Children's singing though it be:
Take the hearts we all are bringing,
Sovereign Son, to Thee, to Thee.

3.

mf Angels praise Thee, God the Spirit,
Source of life, and light, and truth:
Wilt Thou, for the Saviour's merit,
Hear the simpler songs of youth?
Thou receiv'st our adoration,
Children's homage though it be:
Make our hearts a new creation,
Holy Spirit, fit for Thee.

4.

f Triune God, the heavens hail Thee,
Harpers, choirs, and white-robed throngs;
Nor shall children's voices fail Thee
In the universal song.
Now receive our highest praises,
Children's praises though they be;
ff Then to bliss at last upraise us,
Triune God, to worship Thee.

OLD HUNDREDTH. L.M. Genevan Psalter.

f 1 All people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice:

Come ye before Him and rejoice.

mf 2 The Lord, ye know, is God indeed;
Without our aid He did us make:
We are His flock, He doth us feed;
And for His sheep He doth us take.

f 3 O enter, then, His gates with praise;
Approach with joy His courts unto;
Praise, laud, and bless His name always,
For it is seemly so to do.

f 4 For why? The Lord our God is good,
His mercy is for ever sure;
cr. His truth at all times firmly stood,
And shall from age to age endure.

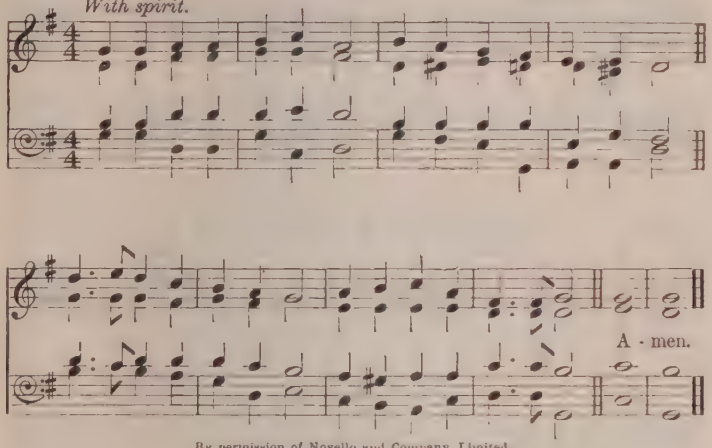
EVER FAITHFUL. 7 7 7 7. ARTHUR SULLIVAN.

With spirit.



By permission of Novello and Company, Limited.

1.

f LET us with a gladsome mind
Praise the Lord, for He is kind ;
For His mercies aye endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.

2.

Let us sound His name abroad,
For of gods He is the God ;
For His mercies aye endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.

3.

He, with all-commanding might,
Filled the new-made world with light:
For His mercies aye endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.

4.

He the golden-tressèd sun
Caused all day his course to run ;
For His mercies aye endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.

5.

mf All things living He doth feed,
His full hand supplies their need ;
For His mercies aye endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.

6.

He His chosen race did bless
In the wasteful wilderness ;
For His mercies aye endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.

7.

p He hath with a piteous eye
Looked upon our misery ;
For His mercies aye endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.

8.

f Let us, then, with gladsome mind
Praise the Lord, for He is kind ;
For His mercies aye endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.

f 1 Angel voices, ever singing
Round Thy throne of light,
Angel harps, for ever ringing,
Rest not day nor night;
Thousands only live to bless Thee,
And confess Thee
Lord of might.

mp 2 Thou who art beyond the farthest Mortal eye can scan,
Can it be that Thou regardest
Songs of sinful man?
Can we know that Thou art near us
And wilt hear us?
f Yea, we can.

3 Yea, we know that Thou rejoicest
O'er each work of Thine;
Thou didst ears, and hands, and voices
For Thy praise design;
Craftsman's art and music's measure
For Thy pleasure
All combine.

4 In Thy house, great God, we offer
Of Thine own to Thee,
And for Thine acceptance proffer,
All unworthily,
Hearts, and minds, and hands, and voices
In our choicest Psalmody.

ff 5 Honour, glory, might, and merit
Thine shall ever be,
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,
Blessèd Trinity.
Of the best that Thou hast given Earth and heaven
Render Thee.

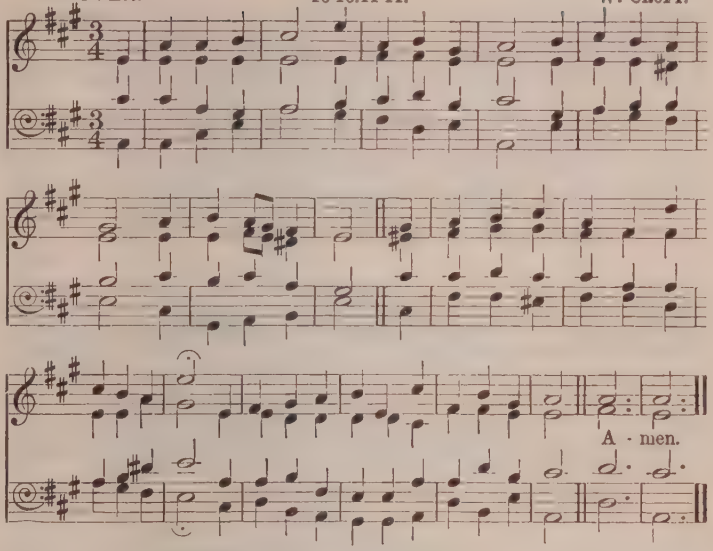
HANOVER. 10 10.11 11. W. CROFT.



f 1 O WORSHIP the King, all glorious above,
O gratefully sing His power and His love:
Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of Days,
Pavilioned in splendour, and girded with praise.

2 O tell of His might, O sing of His grace,
Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space;
His chariots of wrath the deep thunder-clouds form,
And dark is His path on the wings of the storm.

mf 3 The earth with its store of wonders untold,
Almighty! Thy power hath founded of old,
Hath stablished it fast by a changeless decree,
And round it hath cast, like a mantle, the sea.

dim. 4 Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite?
It breathes in the air, it shines in the light,
It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain,
And sweetly distils in the dew and the rain.

p 5 Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail,
In Thee do we trust, nor find Thee to fail;
Thy mercies how tender, how firm to the end,
cr. Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend!

ff 6 O measureless Might! ineffable Love!
While angels delight to hymn Thee above,
The humbler creation, though feeble their lays,
With true adoration shall lisp to Thy praise.

Robert Grant.

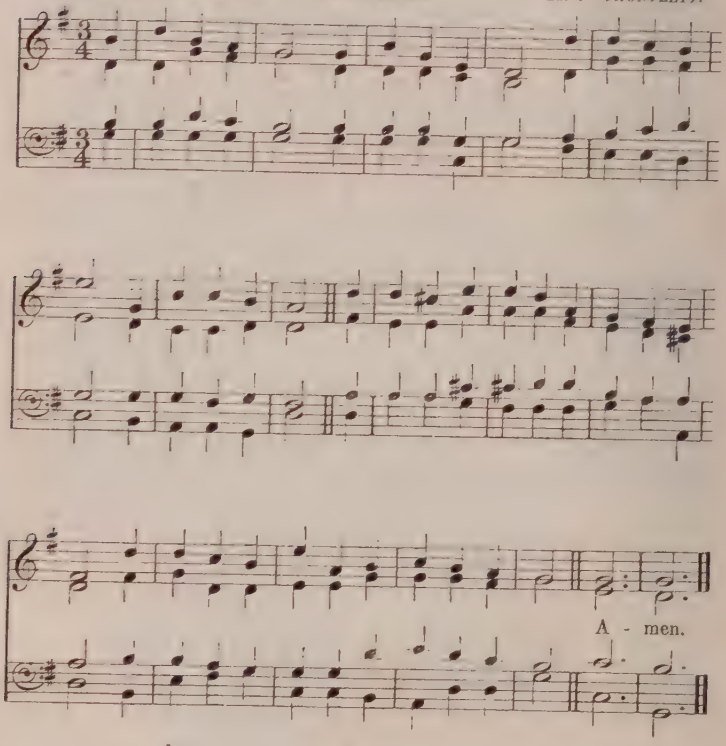
LAUDATE DOMINUM. 5.5.5.5.6.5.6.5. H. J. GAUNTLETT.



1.

f O PRAISE ye the Lord !
Praise Him in the height ;
Rejoice in His Word,
Ye angels of light ;
Ye heavens, adore Him
By whom ye were made,
And worship before Him,
In brightness arrayed.

2.

O praise ye the Lord !
Praise Him upon earth,
mf In tuneful accord,
Ye sons of new birth ;
Praise Him who hath brought you
His grace from above,
Praise Him who hath taught you
To sing of His love.

3.

f O praise ye the Lord,
All things that give sound :
Each jubilant chord,
Re-echo around ;
ff Loud organs, His glory
Forth tell in deep tone, dim. And, sweet harp, the story
Of what He hath done.

f O praise ye the Lord !
Thanksgiving and song
To Him be outpoured
All ages along :
cr. For love in creation,
For heaven restored,
ff For grace of salvation,
O praise ye the Lord !

Worship and Praise.

1.

f O Lord of all, we bring to Thee our sacrifice of praise,
To Thee with glad and thankful hearts our festal hymn we raise:
We are but children here on earth, and Thou art high above;
But yet we dare to come to Thee, because Thy name is Love.

2.

We praise Thee now for life, and health, and earthly happiness,
For all the sacred human love that still our lives doth bless,
For Thy dear Son whom Thou hast sent, whose kind and tender voice
Bids the young children come to Thee, and in Thy love rejoice.

mf What shall we render Thee, O Lord? what tribute shall we bring?
O let us give our hearts, our lives, in thankful offering:
Although we are but children, yet Thou dost our service ask,
And each in Thy great work may find his own appointed task.

mp O make us watchful, lest by sin our hearts be overborne;
O make us true in word and work, though all the world should scorn;
O make us willing here to serve, in lowliness and love,
For Him who in a servant's form came down from heaven above.

mf The night of sin must wane at last, the morn of joy begin,
When Christ in every human heart His royal throne must win:
O let us give Him now in youth our ardour and our strength,
Work for His glorious kingdom here, and share His joy at length!

Already breaks the early dawn of that great day of God;
Already sounds the Master's voice through all the earth abroad.
f Then cast the works of night away, gird on the arms of light,
And on the side of Christ our King stand ready for the fight.

f 1 To Thee, my God and Saviour,
My heart exulting sings,
Rejoicing in Thy favour,
Almighty King of kings;
I'll celebrate Thy glory
With all Thy saints above,
And tell the joyful story
Of Thy redeeming love.

mf 2 Soon as the morn with roses
Bedecks the dewy east,
And when the sun reposes
Upon the ocean's breast,
My voice in supplication
Well pleased Thou shalt hear:
O grant me Thy salvation,
And to my soul draw near.

f 3 By Thee through life supported
I pass the dangerous road,
With heavenly hosts escorted
Up to their bright abode;
ff There cast my crown before Thee,
Now all my conflicts o'er,
And day and night adore Thee:
What can an angel more?

f 1 Sing to the Lord a joyful song,
Lift up your hearts, your voices raise;
To us His gracious gifts belong,
To Him our songs of love and praise.

ff For He is Lord of heaven and earth,
Whom angels love and saints adore,
The Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
To whom be praise for evermore.

mf 2 For life and love, for rest and food,
For daily help and nightly care,
f Sing to the Lord, for He is good,
And praise His name, for it is fair.

mf 3 For strength for those who on Him wait,
His truth to prove, His will to do,
f Praise ye our God, for He is great,
Trust in His name, for it is true.

f 4 For joys untold, that from above Cheer those who love His sweet employ, cr. Sing to our God, for He is love, Exalt His name, for it is joy.

mf O HEAVENLY King, look down from above!
Assist us to sing Thy mercy and love:
So sweetly o'erflowing, so plenteous the store,
Thou still art bestowing, and giving us more.

2.

O God of our life, we hallow Thy name!
Our business and strife is Thee to proclaim;
Accept our thanksgiving for creating grace;
The living, the living shall show forth Thy praise.

3.

Our Father and Lord, almighty art Thou;
Preserved by Thy word, we worship Thee now;
The bountiful Donor of all we enjoy,
Our tongues to Thine honour, and lives we employ.

4.

f But O! above all, Thy kindness we praise,
From sin and from thrall which saves the lost race;
Thy Son Thou hast given the world to redeem,
And bring us to heaven whose trust is in Him.

5.

ff Wherefore of Thy love we sing and rejoice
With angels above we lift up our voice:
Thy love each believer shall gladly adore,
For ever and ever, when time is no more.

God the Father.

1.

f The God that rules on high,
That all the earth surveys,
That rides upon the stormy sky,
And calms the roaring seas,—
This awful God is ours,
Our Father and our love:
He will send down His heavenly powers,
To carry us above.

mf There we shall see His face,
And never, never sin;
There, from the rivers of His grace,
Drink endless pleasures in:
Yea, and before we rise
To that immortal state,
The thoughts of such amazing bliss
Should constant joys create.

3.

f The men of grace have found
Glory begun below;
Celestial fruit on earthly ground
From faith and hope may grow:
ff Then let our songs abound,
And every tear be dry;
We are marching through Immanuel's ground,
To fairer worlds on high.

f A GLADSOME hymn of praise we sing,
And thankfully we gather,
To bless the love of God above,
Our everlasting Father.

ff In Him rejoice with heart and voice,
Whose glory fadeth never,
Whose providence is our defence,
Who lives and loves for ever.

2.

p From shades of night He calls the light,
And from the sod the flower;
From every cloud His blessings break,
In sunshine or in shower.

f Full in His sight His children stand,
By His strong arm defended;
And He, whose wisdom guides the world,
Our footsteps hath attended.

4.

Or care, or joy, or sorrow;
And He whose mercy ruled the past
Will be our stay to-morrow.

mf FATHER, Thine everlasting grace
Our scanty thought surpasses far,
Thy heart still melts with tenderness,
Thy arms of love still open are,
Returning sinners to receive,
That mercy they may taste and live.

2.

O Love, Thou bottomless abyss,
My sins are swallowed up in Thee!
Covered is my unrighteousness,
Nor spot of guilt remains on me,
While Jesu's blood, through earth and skies,
Mercy, free, boundless mercy! cries.

3.

f We come unto our fathers' God;
Their Rock is our salvation;
The eternal arms, their dear abode,
We make our habitation;
We bring Thee, Lord, the praise they brought;
We seek Thee as Thy saints have sought
In every generation.

mf The fire divine their steps that led Still goeth bright before us;
The heavenly shield around them spread
Is still high holden o'er us;
The grace those sinners that subdued,
The strength those weaklings that renewed,
Doth vanquish, doth restore us.

3.

p The cleaving sins that brought them low
Are still our souls oppressing;
The tears that from their eyes did flow
Fall fast, our shame confessing;
As with Thee, Lord, prevailed their cry,
So our strong prayer ascends on high
And bringeth down Thy blessing.

4.

mf Their joy unto their Lord we bring;
Their song to us descendeth;
The Spirit who in them did sing
To us His music lendeth;
His song in them, in us, is one;
cr. We raise it high, we send it on,
The song that never endeth.

5.

f Ye saints to come, take up the strain,

Safe in the same dear dwelling-place,
Rich with the same eternal grace,
Bless the same boundless Giver.

His eternal Love.

mf 3 Lord, upon our blindness,
Thy pure radiance pour;
For Thy lovingkindness
Make us love Thee more.
p And when clouds are drifting
Dark across our sky,
cr. Then, the veil uplifting,
Father, be Thou nigh.

f 4 We will never doubt Thee,
Though Thou veil Thy light:
Life is dark without Thee;
Death with Thee is bright.
Light of Light! shine o'er us
On our pilgrim way,
Go Thou still before us
To the endless day.

p 1 WINTER reigneth o'er the land,
Freezing with its icy breath;
Dead and bare the tall trees stand;
All is chill and drear as death.

mp 2 Yet it seemeth but a day
Since the summer flowers were here,
Since they stacked the balmy hay,
Since they reaped the golden ear.

p 3 Sunny days are past and gone:
So the years go, speeding fast,
Onward ever, each new one Swifter speeding than the last.

dim. 4 Life is waning; life is brief;
Death, like winter, standeth nigh:
Each one, like the falling leaf,
Soon shall fade and fall and die.

mf 5 But the sleeping earth shall wake,
And the flowers shall burst in bloom,
And all nature rising break
Glorious from its wintry tomb.

f 6 So, Lord, after slumber blest Comes a bright awakening,
And our flesh in hope shall rest
Of a never-fading spring.

William Walsham How.

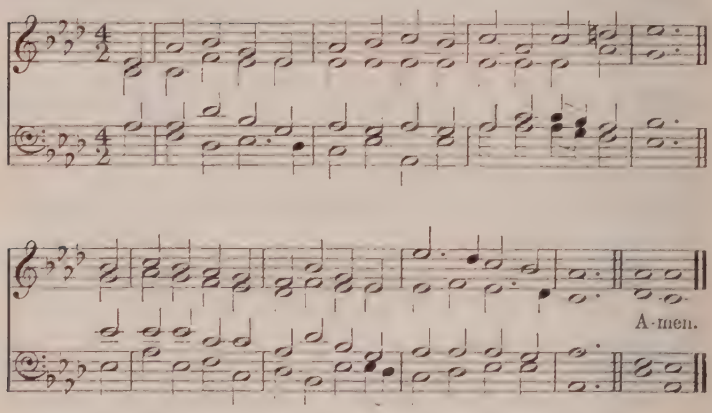
ST. MAGNUS. C.M. J. CLARK.



f 1 O FOR a thousand tongues to sing
My great Redeemer's praise,
The glories of my God and King,
The triumphs of His grace!

2 My gracious Master and my God,
Assist me to proclaim,
To spread through all the earth abroad
The honours of Thy name.

mf 3 Jesus! the name that charms our fears,
That bids our sorrows cease;
'Tis music in the sinner's ears,
'Tis life, and health, and peace.

cr. 4 He breaks the power of cancelled sin,
He sets the prisoner free;
His blood can make the foulest clean,
His blood availed for me.

mf 5 See all your sins on Jesus laid:
The Lamb of God was slain,
His soul was once an offering made
For every soul of man.

mf 1 WHEN morning gilds the skies,
My heart awaking cries,
May Jesus Christ be praised!
Alike at work and prayer
cr. To Jesus I repair:
May Jesus Christ be praised!

mp 2 When sleep her balm denies,
My silent spirit sighs,
May Jesus Christ be praised!
When evil thoughts molest,
cr. With this I shield my breast,—
May Jesus Christ be praised!

p 3 Does sadness fill my mind?

May Jesus Christ be praised!
Or fades my earthly bliss?
cr. My comfort still is this,—
May Jesus Christ be praised!

mf 4 To God, the Word, on high
The hosts of angels cry,
May Jesus Christ be praised!
cr. Let mortals, too, upraise
Their voice in hymns of praise:
May Jesus Christ be praised!

f 5 Let earth's wide circle round

f 1 In the name of Jesus
Every knee shall bow,
Every tongue confess Him
King of Glory now.
'Tis the Father's pleasure
We should call Him Lord,
Who from the beginning
Was the mighty Word.

2 At His voice creation
Sprang at once to sight,—
All the angel faces,
All the hosts of light,
Thrones and dominations,
Stars upon their way,
All the heavenly orders
In their great array.

p 3 Humbled for a season,
To receive a name
From the lips of sinners Unto whom He came;
cr. Faithfully He bore it, Spotless to the last,
mf Brought it back victorious
When from death He passed.

4 Name Him, brothers, name Him,
With love strong as death,
But with awe and wonder
And with bated breath:
cr. He is God the Saviour,
He is Christ the Lord,
Ever to be worshipped,
Trusted, and adored.

mf 5 In your hearts enthrone Him ;
There let Him subdue
All that is not holy,
All that is not true :
Crown Him as your Captain
In temptation's hour ;
Let His will enfold you
In its light and power.

f 6 Brothers, this Lord Jesus
Shall return again,
With His Father's glory,
With His angel train ;
For all wreaths of empire
Meet upon His brow,
And our hearts confess Him
King of Glory now.

Birth and Incarnation.

f 1 Christians, awake, salute the happy morn,
Whereon the Saviour of mankind was born;
Rise to adore the mystery of love,
Which hosts of angels chanted from above:
With them the joyful tidings first begun
Of God incarnate and the Virgin's Son.

mf 2 Then to the watchful shepherds it was told,
Who heard the angelic herald's voice,—Behold,
I bring good tidings of a Saviour's birth
To you and all the nations upon earth;
This day hath God fulfilled His promised word,
This day is born a Saviour, Christ the Lord!

f 3 He spake; and straightway the celestial choir
In hymns of joy, unknown before, conspire;
The praises of redeeming love they sang,
And heaven's whole orb with hallelujahs rang;
God's highest glory was their anthem still,
Peace upon earth, and unto men good-will.

mf 4 To Bethlehem straight the enlightened shepherds ran,
To see the wonders God had wrought for man:
Then to their flocks, still praising God, return,
And their glad hearts with holy rapture burn;
Amazed, the wondrous tidings they proclaim,
The first apostles of His infant fame.

mp 5 O may we keep and ponder in our mind
God's wondrous love in saving lost mankind;
Trace we the Babe, who hath retrieved our loss,
From the poor manger to the bitter cross;
cr. Tread in His steps, assisted by His grace, Till man's first heavenly state again takes place!

ff 6 Then may we hope, the angelic hosts among,
To join, redeemed, a glad triumphant throng;
He that was born upon this joyful day
Around us all His glory shall display;
Saved by His love, incessant we shall sing
Eternal praise to heaven's almighty King.

mf It came upon the midnight clear,
That glorious song of old,
From angels bending near the earth
To touch their harps of gold,— dim. Peace on the earth, good-will to men,
From heaven's all-gracious King!
pp The world in solemn stillness lay
To hear the angels sing.

2.

mf Still through the cloven skies they come
With peaceful wings unfurled;
And still their heavenly music floats
O'er all the weary world;
Above its sad and lowly plains
They bend on hovering wing,
And ever o'er its Babel sounds
The blessèd angels sing.

3.

mf But with the woes of sin and strife
The world has suffered long;
Beneath the angel strain have rolled
Two thousand years of wrong;
cr. And man, at war with man, hears not
The love song which they bring:
pp O hush the noise, ye men of strife,
And hear the angels sing.

mf For lo! the days are hastening on,
By prophet bards foretold,
When with the ever-circling years
Comes round the age of gold,
cr. When peace shall over all the earth
Its ancient splendours fling,
And the whole world give back the song
Which now the angels sing.

1 CRADLED in a manger, meanly
Laid the Son of Man His head ;
Sleeping His first earthly slumber
Where the oxen had been fed.
Happy were those shepherds listening
To the holy angel's word ;
Happy they, within that stable,
Worshipping their infant Lord.

2 Happy all who hear the message
Of His coming from above ;
Happier still who hail His coming,
And with praises greet His love.
Blessèd Saviour, Christ most holy,
In a manger Thou didst rest ;
Canst Thou stoop again, yet lower,
And abide within my breast ?

3 Evil things are there before Thee ;
In the heart, where they have fed,
Wilt Thou pitifully enter,
Son of Man, and lay Thy head ?
Enter, then, O Christ most holy ;
Make a Christmas in my heart ;
Make a heaven of my manger :
It is heaven where Thou art.

4 And to those who never listened
To the message of Thy birth,
Who have winter, but no Christmas
Bringing them Thy peace on earth,
Send to these the joyful tidings ;
By all people, in each home,
Be there heard the Christmas anthem,— Praise to God, the Christ has come !

mf 1 Sweetly sang the angels
In the clear calm night,
On their white wings resting
In the heavenly light;
Sent by God the Father,
Who our love has sought,
Unto men and children
Tidings glad they brought.

f Children, blend your voices,
In sweet concord sing;
Hail the Lord's Anointed,
Christ, the children's King!

mp 2 To the gentle shepherds
It was first revealed,
Watching mid the darkness
In the open field,
That in David's city,
On that holy morn,
In a lowly stable,
Christ our King was born.

f 3 Gladdened by the tidings,
Hastily they sped
To the crowded city
And the manger-bed:
mf There they found the Saviour,
With His mother mild;
Him they loved and worshipped,
Though a lowly child.

p 4 In His simple childhood
And His sacred youth
All His ways were holy,
All His words were truth;
For our sins He suffered,
And, through grief untold,
All His lambs He purchased
For His sacred fold.

mf 5 Jesu, meek and gentle,
Make us like to Thee;
Loving, true, and tender,
Thou wouldst have us be:
cr. Blessings rich and holy
At this Christmas-tide
Pour Thou now upon us,
Saviour, King, and Guide.

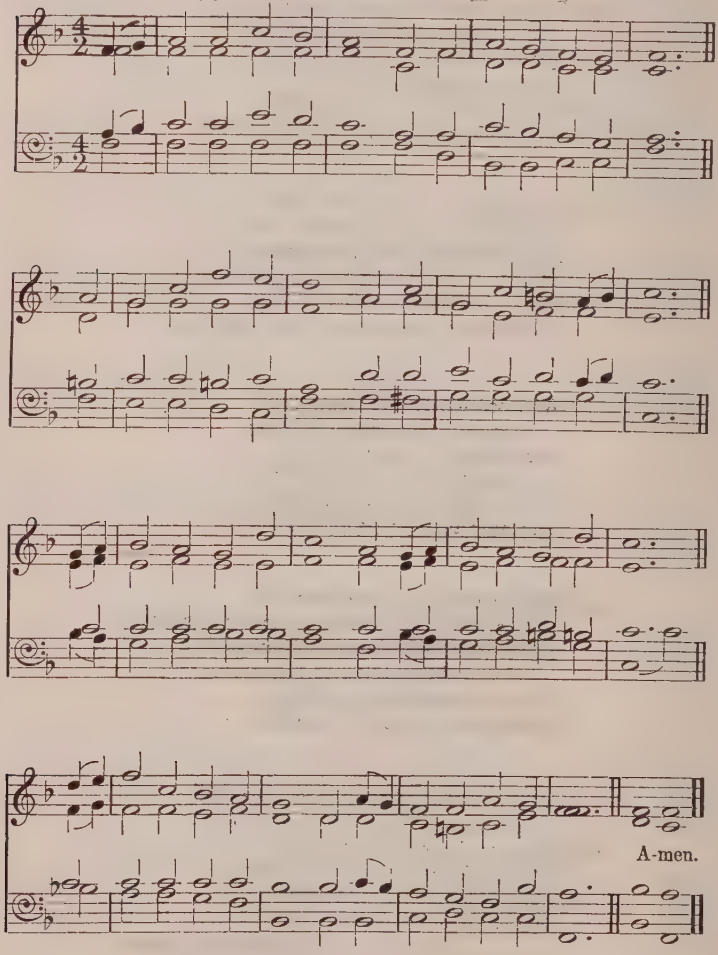
CARLOW. 7.6.7.6.7.6.7.6. R. N. QUAILE.



Copyright of the Wesleyan Methodist Sunday School Department.

mp 1 O Son of Man, who camest
From highest heaven to earth,
To be the Man of sorrows,
The Child of lowly birth;
cr. The throne of light approaching,
Thy praises would we sing,
As angels cannot sing Thee,
Our Prophet, Priest, and King.

mf 2 Thine was the hand of labour
Before it knew the nail;
The cedar of the mountain,
The willow of the vale—
cr. These gave Thee lowly service,
And earthly gain or loss,
Before Thy sacred passion,
The ransom of Thy cross.

mp 3 In patience uncomplaining,
Thy task was wrought with prayer;
And no one knew Thy sorrows,
The burdens Thou didst bear:
cr. O give us Thy sweet patience,
O bid our hearts be still,
And lead us to Thy refuge,
Within the Father's will!

mf 4 The river of Thy pleasure
Flows through our common days,
And meanest tasks are holy
When wrought in holy ways:
cr. For, not as man, Thou seest
The high, the low estate;
Our low are Thy high places,
Our small to Thee is great.

mf 5 O Son of Man, exalted,
Thou knowest we are dust;
Give us Thy balm for sorrow,
Give us the joy of trust:
cr. And where Thy wisdom chooses
Our earthly task shall be,
Let it be wrought in gladness,
And wrought alone for Thee.

* With feeling, but not too slowly.

1.

mp Who is this, so weak and helpless,
Child of lowly Hebrew maid,
Rudely in a stable sheltered,
Coldly in a manger laid?
mf 'Tis the Lord of all creation,
Who this wondrous path hath trod;
He is God from everlasting,
And to everlasting God.

2.

p Who is this, a Man of sorrows,
Walking sadly life's hard way,
Homeless, weary, sighing, weeping
Over sin and Satan's sway?
mf 'Tis our God, our glorious Saviour,
Who above the starry sky
Now prepares the many mansions,
Where no tear can dim the eye.

3.

pp Who is this? behold Him shedding
Drops of blood upon the ground!
Who is this, despised, rejected,
Mocked, insulted, beaten, bound?
mf 'Tis our God, who gifts and graces
On His Church now poureth down;
Who shall smite in holy vengeance
All His foes beneath His throne.

pp Who is this that hangeth dying, [scorns,
While the rude world scoffs and
On the cross with sinners numbered, Pierced with nails, and crowned with mf 'Tis the God who ever liveth [thorns;
Mid the shining ones on high,
In the glorious golden city
Reigning everlastingly.

p 3 The wild winds hushed, the angry deep Sank, like a little child, to sleep,
The sullen billows ceased to leap

Say, lest we sink to rise no more,
'Peace, be still!'

PSALM xxiii.

mf 1 THE Lord 's my Shepherd, I'll not want:
He makes me down to lie
In pastures green; He leadeth me
The quiet waters by.

2 My soul He doth restore again,
And me to walk doth make
Within the paths of righteousness,
Ev'n for His own name's sake.

p 3 Yea, though I walk in death's dark vale, mp Yet will I fear no ill;
For Thou art with me, and Thy rod
And staff me comfort still.

mf 4 My table Thou hast furnished
In presence of my foes;
My head Thou dost with oil anoint,
And my cup overflows.

f 5 Goodness and mercy all my life
Shall surely follow me,
And in God's house for evermore
My dwelling-place shall be.

Only let us follow
Whither He doth lead,
To the thirsty desert
Or the dewy mead.

mf 2 Jesus is our Shepherd:

dim. How its gentlest whisper mf Makes our heart rejoice!

mp 1 I WAS a wandering sheep;
I did not love the fold,
I did not love my Shepherd's voice,
I would not be controlled.
I was a wayward child;
I did not love my home,
I did not love my Father's voice,
I loved afar to roam.

2 The Shepherd sought His sheep,
The Father sought His child;
He followed me o'er vale and hill,
O'er deserts waste and wild:
He found me nigh to death,
Famished, and faint, and lone;
cr. He bound me with the bands of love,
He saved the wandering one.

mf 3 Jesus my Shepherd is:
'Twas He that loved my soul;
'Twas He that washed me in His blood;
'Twas He that made me whole;
'Twas He that sought the lost,
That found the wandering sheep;
'Twas He that brought me to the fold;
'Tis He that still doth keep.

f When, His salvation bringing,

Hosanna to His name;
Nor did their zeal offend Him,
But, as He rode along,
He let them still attend Him,
And smiled to hear their song.

Though now as King He reigneth

But shall we only render
The tribute of our words?
No! while our hearts are tender,
They too shall be the Lord's.

f 1 Come, praise your Lord and Saviour
In strains of holy mirth;
Give thanks to Him, O children,
Who lived a Child on earth.
He loved the little children,
And called them to His side;
His loving arms embraced them,
dim. And for their sake He died.

mf 2 O Jesu, we would praise Thee
With songs of holy joy;
For Thou on earth didst sojourn
A pure and spotless Boy.
Make us like Thee, obedient,
Like Thee, from sin stains free,
Like Thee in God's own temple,
In lowly home like Thee.

3 O Jesu, we too praise Thee,
The lowly maiden's Son;
In Thee all gentlest graces
Are gathered into one.
O give that best adornment
That Christian maid can wear,
The meek and quiet spirit
Which shone in Thee so fair!

f 4 O Lord, with voices blended
We sing our songs of praise;
Be Thou the Light and Pattern
Of all our childhood's days;
And lead us ever onward,
That, while we stay below,
We may, like Thee, O Jesu,
In grace and wisdom grow.

Take it to the Lord in prayer.
Can we find a friend so faithful,
Who will all our sorrows share?
mp Jesus knows our every weakness;—
Take it to the Lord in prayer.

3.

mf 1 I COULD not do without Thee,
O Saviour of the lost,
Whose precious blood redeemed me
At such tremendous cost;
Thy righteousness, Thy pardon,
Thy precious blood must be
My only hope and comfort,
My glory and my plea.

The Friend and Saviour of Children.

2 I could not do without Thee,
I cannot stand alone,
I have no strength or goodness,
No wisdom of my own;
But Thou, belovèd Saviour,
Art all in all to me,
And weakness will be power
If leaning hard on Thee.

p 3 I could not do without Thee,
For O the way is long,
And I am often weary,
And sigh replaces song;
How could I do without Thee?
I do not know the way;
cr. Thou knowest, and Thou leadest,
And wilt not let me stray.

mf 4 I could not do without Thee,
O Jesus, Saviour dear;
E'en when my eyes are holden
I know that Thou art near· p How dreary and how lonely
This changeful life would be Without the sweet communion,
The secret rest with Thee.

mf 5 I could not do without Thee;
No other friend can read
The spirit's strange, deep longings,
Interpreting its need;
No human heart could enter
Each dim recess of mine, dim. And soothe, and hush, and calm it,
O blessèd Lord, but Thine.

mp 6 I could not do without Thee;
For years are fleeting fast,
dim. And soon in solemn loneness
The river must be passed:
mf But Thou wilt never leave me;
And though the waves roll high,
I know Thou wilt be near me,
And whisper, It is I.

mf 1 I lay my sins on Jesus,
The spotless Lamb of God;
He bears them all, and frees us
From the accursèd load.
I bring my guilt to Jesus,
To wash my crimson stains
White in His blood most precious,
Till not a spot remains.

2 I lay my wants on Jesus;
All fulness dwells in Him;
He heals all my diseases,
He doth my soul redeem.
I lay my griefs on Jesus,
My burdens, and my cares;
He from them all releases,
He all my sorrows shares.

mp 3 I long to be like Jesus,
Meek, loving, lowly, mild;
I long to be like Jesus,
The Father's holy Child.
mf I long to be with Jesus,
Amid the heavenly throng,
f To sing with saints His praises,
To learn the angels' song.

Chant Thy praise beyond the skies;
There with Thee, my Saviour,
Dwell for evermore.

cr. I shall not fear the battle
If Thou art by my side,
Nor wander from the pathway
If Thou wilt be my Guide.

mp 2 O let me feel Thee near me:

The tempting sounds I hear;
My foes are ever near me,
Around me and within;
cr. But, Jesus, draw Thou nearer,
And shield my soul from sin.

p 3 O let me hear Thee speaking
In accents clear and still,
Above the storms of passion,
The murmurs of self-will;

To hasten or control;
O speak, and make me listen,
Thou Guardian of my soul.

mf O Jesus, Thou hast promised,

Is in Thy strength alone.

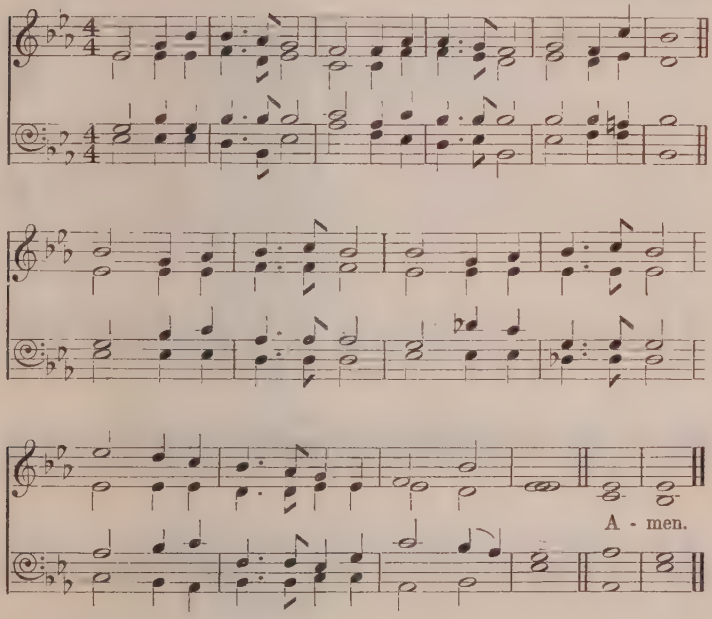
HARLAN. 6 6.4.6 6 6.4. LOWELL MASON.



mf 1 My faith looks up to Thee,
Thou Lamb of Calvary,
Saviour divine:
Now hear me while I pray;
Take all my guilt away;
cr. O let me from this day
Be wholly Thine.

mf 2 May Thy rich grace impart
Strength to my fainting heart,
My zeal inspire;
p As Thou hast died for me,
cr. O may my love to Thee
Pure, warm, and changeless be,
A living fire.

p 3 When life's dark maze I tread,
And griefs around me spread,
mf Be Thou my Guide;
cr. Bid darkness turn to day,
Wipe sorrow's tears away,
Nor let me ever stray
From Thee aside.

pp 4 When ends life's transient dream,
When death's cold, sullen stream
Shall o'er me roll,
cr. Blest Saviour, then, in love, Fear and distrust remove;
mf O bear me safe above,
A ransomed soul.

256 RESURRECTION, ASCENSION, AND GLORY.

EASTER MORN. 7 7.7 7. (with Hallelujahs). Lyra Davidica.

This may be sung in D flat.

Resurrection, Ascension, and Glory.

1.

f CHRIST the Lord is risen to-day!
Sons of men and angels say.
Raise your joys and triumphs high:
Sing, ye heavens; thou earth, reply.

2.

mf Love's redeeming work is done;
Fought the fight, the battle won:
Lo! the sun's eclipse is o'er;
Lo! he sets in blood no more.

3.

Vain the stone, the watch, the seal;
Christ hath burst the gates of hell:
Death in vain forbids His rise;
Christ hath opened paradise.

4.

f Lives again our glorious King!
Where, O death, is now thy sting?
mf Once He died our souls to save:
f Where's thy victory, boasting grave?

5.

Soar we now where Christ hath led,
Following our exalted Head:
cr. Made like Him, like Him we rise;
Ours the cross, the grave, the skies.

ff King of glory! Soul of bliss!
Everlasting life is this,
Thee to know, Thy power to prove,
Thus to sing, and thus to love.

Charles Wesley.

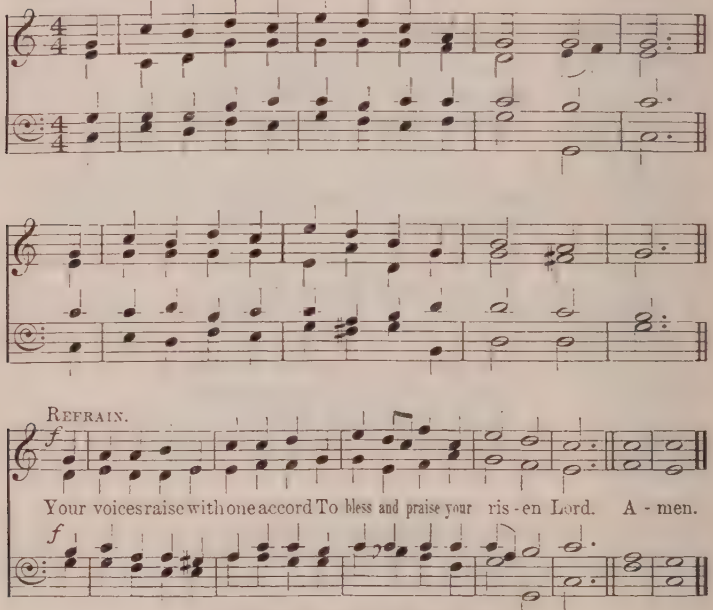
MANSFIELD. 6.6.6.6., with Refrain. J. Barnby.



By permission of Novello and Company, Limited.

mf 1 On wings of living light,
At earliest dawn of day,
Came down the angel bright,
And rolled the stone away.

f Your voices raise with one accord
To bless and praise your risen Lord.

mf 2 The keepers watching near,
At that dread sight and sound,
dim. Fell down with sudden fear
Like dead men, to the ground.

f 3 Then rose from death's dark gloom,
Unseen by mortal eye,
Triumphant o'er the tomb
The Lord of earth and sky.

mf 4 Ye children of the light,
Arise with Him, arise;
See how the Day-star bright
Is burning in the skies!

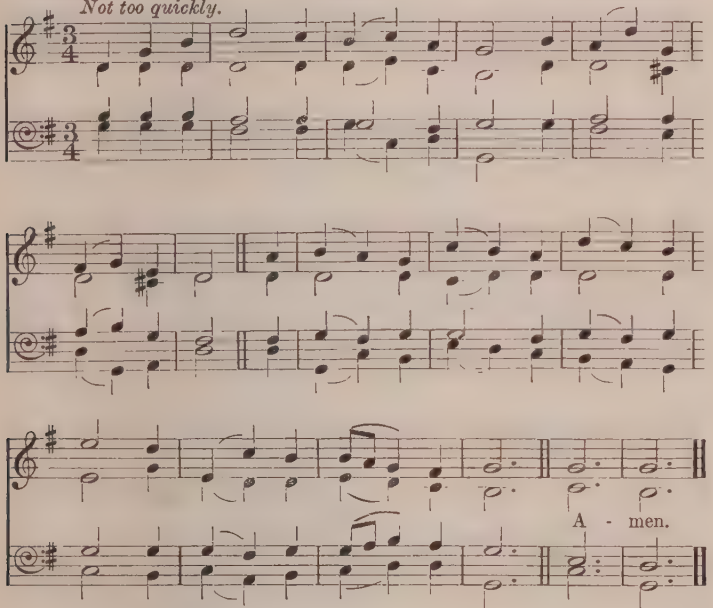
mp 5 Leave in the grave beneath
The old things passed away;
Buried with Him in death,
O live with Him to-day.

6 We sing Thee, Lord divine,
With all our hearts and powers;
For we are ever Thine,
And Thou art ever ours.

William Walsham How.

RICHMOND. C.M. T. Haweis.

Not too quickly.



1.

mf Ye humble souls that seek the Lord,
Chase all your fears away;
And bow with rapture down to see
The place where Jesus lay.

2.

mp Thus low the Lord of Life was brought,
Such wonders love can do;
p Thus cold in death that bosom lay,
Which throbbed and bled for you.

3.

f But raise your eyes, and tune your songs;
The Saviour lives again:
Not all the bolts and bars of death
The Conqueror could detain.

mf High o'er the angelic bands He rears
His once dishonoured head;
And through unnumbered years He reigns,
Who dwelt among the dead.

5.

With joy like His shall every saint
His vacant tomb survey;
f Then rise with his ascending Lord
To realms of endless day.

ST. ALBINUS. 7.8.7.8.4. H. J. GAUNTLETT.

f Jesus lives!—thy terrors now
Can, O death, no more appal us;
Jesus lives!—by this we know
Thou, O grave, canst not enthral us.
Hallelujah!

2.

Jesus lives!—to Him the throne
High o'er heaven and earth is given;
We may go where He is gone,
Live and reign with Him in heaven.
Hallelujah!

3.

mf Jesus lives!—for us He died;
Hence may we, to Jesus living,
Pure in heart and act abide,
Praise to Him and glory giving.
Hallelujah!

4.

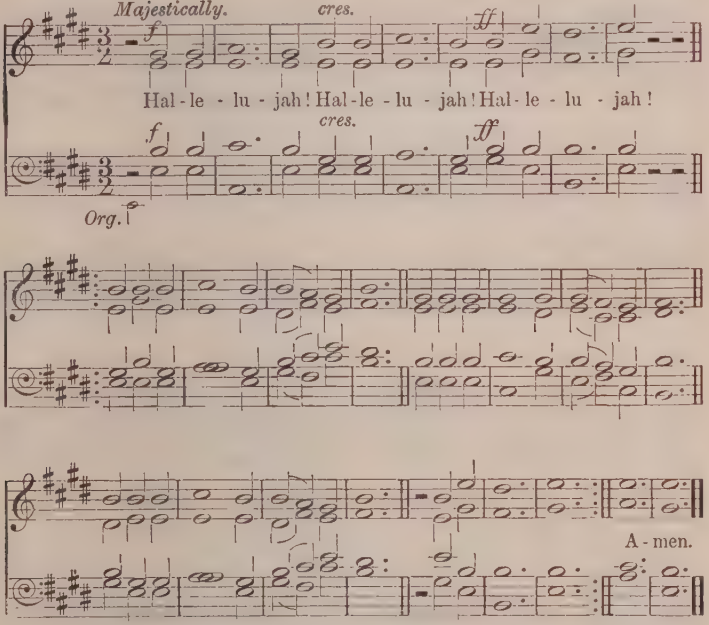
cr. Jesus lives!—our hearts know well
Nought from us His love shall sever;
Life, nor death, nor powers of hell,
Part us now from Christ for ever.
Hallelujah!

5.

f Jesus lives!—henceforth is death
Entrance-gate of life immortal;
p This shall calm our trembling breath
When we pass its gloomy portal.
f Hallelujah!

Gellert, trs. by Frances E. Cox.

VICTORY. 8 8 8 4. Adapted from PALESTRINA.



f 1 THE strife is o'er, the battle done;
The victory of life is won;
The song of triumph has begun.
Hallelujah!

mf 2 The powers of death have done their worst;
But Christ their legions hath dispersed:
cr. Let shouts of holy joy outburst.
Hallelujah!

p 3 The three sad days have quickly sped;
f He rises glorious from the dead:
cr. All glory to our risen Head!
Hallelujah!

mp 4 Lord, by the stripes which wounded Thee,
From death's dread sting Thy servants free,
cr. That we may live and sing to Thee.
Hallelujah!

1.

mf O come, let us be joyful
This glorious Easter Day;
For Jesus Christ is risen!
All voices seem to say.
The shining sun above us,
The birds with busy wing,
The flowers that deck the garden,
They call on us to sing.

2.

f For on this Easter morning,
So many years ago,
Our Saviour rose victorious,
And conquered death the foe.
As night drew near to sunrise
The stone was rolled away:
No bars could keep Him captive
Who there in darkness lay.

3.

mf So when His friends came seeking,
They found an empty grave.
Bright angels told the story
Of how He came to save.
f He is not here, but risen!—
How gladly do we sing
Our Easter hymns of praises
To Christ, our risen King!

4.

This gladsome Easter Sunday
Our happy songs ascend;
We know He loves to hear us,
He is the children's Friend.
With flowers, and birds, and sunshine,
We join in music gay;
For Jesus Christ is risen!
All voices seem to say.

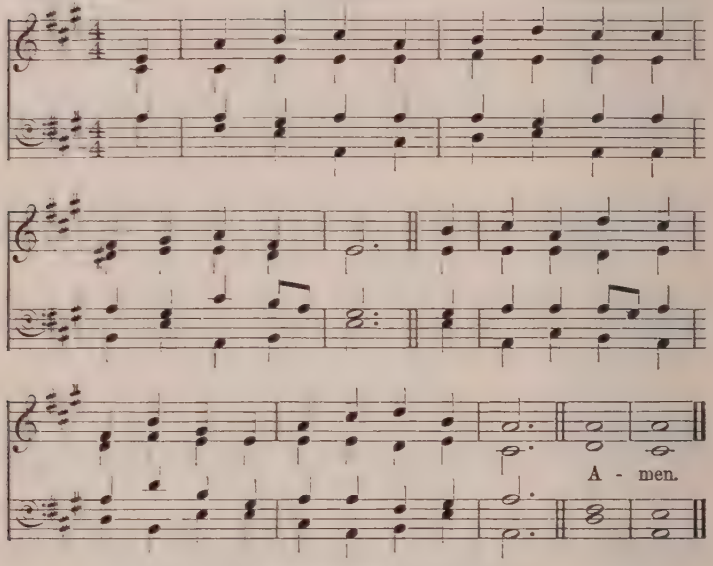
ST. JAMES. C.M. R. COURTEVILLE.



mf 1 THE Spirit breathes upon the Word,
And brings the truth to sight;
Precepts and promises afford
A sanctifying light.

cr. 2 A glory gilds the sacred page,
Majestic, like the sun:
It gives a light to every age;
It gives, but borrows none.

mf 3 The hand that gave it still supplies
The gracious light and heat;
His truths upon the nations rise;
They rise, but never set.

cr. 4 Let everlasting thanks be Thine
For such a bright display
As makes a world of darkness shine
With beams of heavenly day.

f 5 My soul rejoices to pursue
The steps of Him I love, ff Till glory breaks upon my view
In brighter worlds above.

As Thou didst break the loaves Beside the sea:
Beyond the sacred page
I seek Thee, Lord:
My spirit pants for Thee,
O living Word!

mf 1 O how blest the hour, Lord Jesus,
When we can to Thee draw near,
Promises so sweet and precious
From Thy gracious lips to hear!

2 Be with us this day to bless us,
That we may not hear in vain;
With the saving truths impress us,
Which the words of life contain.

f 3 See us, eager for salvation,
Sit, great Master, at Thy feet,
And with breathless expectation
Hang upon Thine accents sweet.

mf 4 Open Thou our minds, and lead us
Safely on our heavenward way;
With the lamp of truth precede us,
That we may not go astray.

Men walk safely in the light.

With such light, and love, and power,

f 1 HARK, my soul! it is the Lord;
'Tis thy Saviour; hear His word:
Jesus speaks, and speaks to thee:—

And, when bleeding, healed thy wound;
Sought thee wandering, set thee right;
Turned thy darkness into light.

Cease toward the child she bare?
Yes, she may forgetful be;
Yet will I remember thee.

mp 1 WAS there ever kindest shepherd
Half so gentle, half so sweet,
As the Saviour who would have us
Come and gather round His feet?

mf 2 There's a wideness in God's mercy
Like the wideness of the sea;
There's a kindness in His justice
Which is more than liberty.

mp 3 There is no place where earth's sorrows
Are more felt than up in heaven;
There is no place where earth's failings
Have such kindly judgment given.

mf 4 There is welcome for the sinner,
And more graces for the good;
There is mercy with the Saviour;
dim. There is healing in His blood.

mp 5 There is plentiful redemption
In the blood that has been shed;
There is joy for all the members
dim. In the sorrows of the Head.

f 6 For the love of God is broader Than the measures of man's mind,
And the heart of the Eternal
Is most wonderfully kind.

In the sweetness of our Lord.

mp 1 O COME to the merciful Saviour who calls you,
O come to the Lord who forgives and forgets;
Though dark be the fortune on earth that befalls you,
There's a bright home above where the sun never sets.

2 O come, then, to Jesus, whose arms are extended
To fold His dear children in closest embrace;
O come, for your exile will shortly be ended,
And Jesus will show you His beautiful face.

mf 3 Yes, come to the Saviour, whose mercy grows brighter
The longer you look at the depth of His love;
And fear not! 'tis Jesus! and life's cares grow lighter,
As you think of the home and the glory above.

4 O come, then, to Jesus, and say how you love Him,
And vow at His feet you will keep in His grace;
p For one tear that is shed by a sinner can move Him,
And your sins will drop off in His tender embrace.

f 5 Come, come to His feet, and lay open your story
Of suffering and sorrow, of guilt and of shame;
cr. For the pardon of sin is the crown of His glory,
f And the joy of our Lord to be true to His name.

1.

mp Come unto Me, ye weary,
And I will give you rest!—
mf O blessèd voice of Jesus,
Which comes to hearts oppressed!
It tells of benediction,
Of pardon, grace, and peace,
f Of joy that hath no ending,
Of love that cannot cease.

2.

mp Come unto Me, ye wanderers,
And I will give you light!—
mf O loving voice of Jesus,
Which comes to cheer the night!
dim. Our hearts were filled with sadness,
And we had lost our way;
f But morning brings us gladness,
And songs the break of day.

3.

mp Come unto Me, ye fainting,
And I will give you life!—
mf O cheering voice of Jesus,
Which comes to aid our strife!
The foe is stern and eager,
The fight is fierce and long;
f But Thou hast made us mighty,
And stronger than the strong.

4.

mf And whosoever cometh
I will not cast him out!
cr. O welcome voice of Jesus,
Which drives away our doubt,
Which calls us, very sinners, Unworthy though we be
f Of love so free and boundless,
To come, dear Lord, to Thee!

mf CHRIST receiveth sinners still!
Sound the precious truth abroad;
Those who tread the paths of ill,
Tell them of their Saviour Lord, cr. That He saves whoever will:
Christ receiveth sinners still!

2.

mp Sinful and unworthy, we [claim;
Nought of grace or favour cr. But His word speaks graciously,
Tells of pardon in His name.
And His promise He'll fulfil:
Christ receiveth sinners still!

3.

p Though the sheep has gone astray,
Still the Shepherd seeks the lost;
Follows faithful in the way,
Till He brings it home at last.
cr. That none perish is His will:
Christ receiveth sinners still!

4.

p Penitent I now draw nigh,
Telling all my woe to Thee;
Hear, O Saviour, hear my cry,
From my guilt and sin set free.
cr. Now in me Thy word fulfil:
Christ receiveth sinners still!

Of our life's wild restless sea,
Day by day His sweet voice soundeth,
Saying, Christian, follow Me,—

2 As, of old, apostles heard it
By the Galilæan lake,
Turned from home, and toil, and kindred,
Leaving all for His dear sake.

Of the vain world's golden store,
From each idol that would keep us,
Saying, Christian, love Me more!

mp 4 In our joys and in our sorrows,
Days of toil and hours of ease,
Still He calls, in cares and pleasures,
That we love Him more than these.

mp O give me Samuel's heart,
A lowly heart, that waits
Where in Thy house Thou art,
Or watches at Thy gates
By day and night, a heart that still Moves at the breathing of Thy will.

A sweet unmurmuring faith,
Obedient and resigned
To Thee in life and death,

Truths that are hidden from the wise.

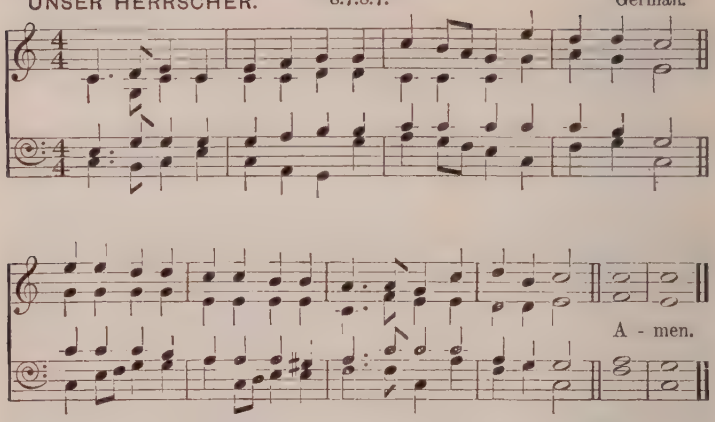
UNSER HERRSCHER. 8.7.8.7. German.



f 1 Grant us, O our Heavenly Father,
Now in these our early days,
Thee in all things to remember,
Thee to serve, and Thee to praise.

mf 2 Drawing nearer still and nearer,
May we close and closer cling
To our Lord, and to His altar
There ourselves an offering bring.

f 3 Step by step in life advancing,
Onward, upward, as we move
Through the world unharmed, rejoicing
In His all-redeeming love:

mf 4 Blest in joy, upheld in sorrow,
At our work as in His sight,
May His presence still be with us,
As we do it with our might.

5 Serving Thee, our Heavenly Father,
From the dawn to set of sun,
Serving Thee in life's young morning,
Till our work on earth is done:

mf THE wise may bring their learning,
The rich may bring their wealth;
And some may bring their greatness,
And some bring strength and health.
cr. We, too, would bring our treasures
To offer to the King:
We have no wealth or learning;
What shall we children bring?

2.

mf We'll bring Him hearts that love [Him,
We'll bring Him thankful praise,
And young souls meekly striving
To walk in holy ways:
And these shall be the treasures
We offer to the King;
And these are gifts that even
The poorest child may bring.

3.

We'll bring the little duties
We have to do each day;
We'll try our best to please Him
At home, at school, at play:

To offer to our King,
Than richest gifts without them;
Yet these a child may bring.

In deeds of mercy spent,
In praise and prayer,
Thus shall earth's Sabbath days
For heaven prepare.

Thoughtfully but firmly. ♩ = 108 throughout.

mf 1 Earth's ten thousand voices
Daily rise and fall;
cr. But there's one within me
Clearer than them all:
'Tis the voice of Jesus;
And I do not know
When its tones first sounded,
'Tis so long ago.
mp At the parting of the ways,
At the crisis of my days,
cr. Thou art calling, calling, calling;
And my heart its Lord obeys.

mf 2 As the days of childhood
Happily have sped,
cr. Oft the voice has thrilled me:
Follow Me! it said,
Either in the accents
Of authority,
dim. Or of love sore wounded—
As from Calvary.

mf 3 Speak, Thy servant heareth;
Speak whate'er Thou wilt:
Let me know Thy mercy;
Let me know my guilt.
Conquer my perverseness;
Cure me of delay:
Save me, Lord and Saviour;
Save—this very day.

mf 1 Take my life, and let it be Consecrated, Lord, to Thee.
Take my moments and my days;
Let them flow in ceaseless praise.

2 Take my hands, and let them move
At the impulse of Thy love.
Take my feet, and let them be Swift and beautiful for Thee.

f 3 Take my voice, and let me sing
Always, only for my King.
Take my lips, and let them be Filled with messages from Thee.

mf 4 Take my silver and my gold;
Not a mite would I withhold.
Take my intellect, and use
Every power as Thou shalt choose.

5 Take my will, and make it Thine;
It shall be no longer mine.
Take my heart—it is Thine own;
It shall be Thy royal throne.

f 6 Take my love; my Lord, I pour
At Thy feet its treasure-store.
Take myself, and I will be Ever, only, all for Thee!

mp 1 SAVIOUR, while my heart is tender,
I would yield that heart to Thee,
cr. All my powers to Thee surrender, Thine, and only Thine, to be.

mf 2 Take me now, Lord Jesus, take me;
Let my youthful heart be Thine;
Thy devoted servant make me;
Fill my soul with love divine.

3 Send me, Lord, where Thou wilt send me,
Only do Thou guide my way;
May Thy grace through life attend me,
Gladly then shall I obey.

mp 1 I BELONG to Jesus:
'Twas a happy day
When His blood most precious Washed my sins away;
When His Holy Spirit
Changed my heart of stone,
Set His mark upon me,
Sealed me for His own.

mf I belong to Jesus:
So I'll try to spend
All my life in pleasing
My almighty Friend.
mp Since He is so holy,
I must watch and pray,
cr. That I may grow like Him
More and more each day.

f 3 I belong to Jesus:
Therefore I can sing,
For I'm safe and happy Underneath His wing;
p But so many round me
Are all dark and cold,
cr. I must try to bring them Into Jesu's fold.

mf 4 I belong to Jesus:
Soon He will be here:
If I love and trust Him,
What have I to fear?
cr. Round about Him gathered Will His people be;
And I'm sure that Jesus
Will remember me.

In God most just
Hath built his house securely;

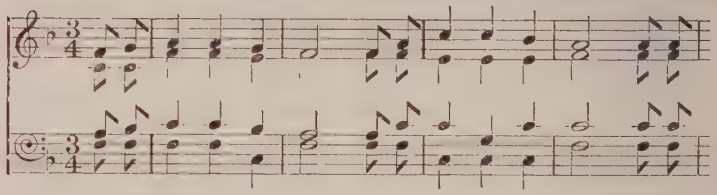
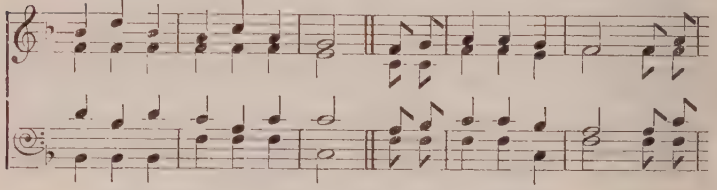
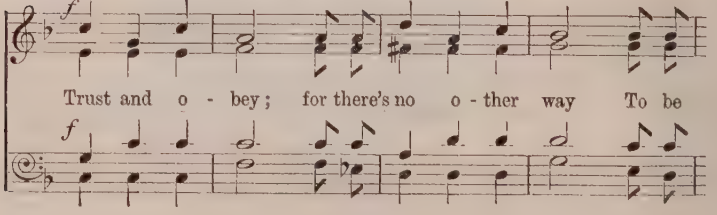
TRUST AND OBEY. 6 6.9.6 6.9., with Refrain. D. B. Towner.

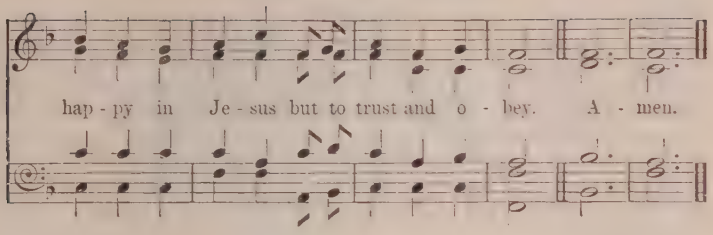




Refrain.



Trust and Peace.



mf 1 When we walk with the Lord
In the light of His word,
What a glory He sheds on our way!
While we do His good will
He abides with us still,
And with all who will trust and obey.

f Trust and obey; for there's no other way
To be happy in Jesus but to trust and obey.

mp 2 Not a shadow can rise,
Not a cloud in the skies,
But His smile quickly drives it away;
Not a doubt or a fear,
Not a sigh or a tear,
Can abide while we trust and obey.

3 Not a burden we bear,
Not a sorrow we share,
But our toil He doth richly repay;
Not a grief or a loss,
Not a frown or a cross,
But is blessed if we trust and obey.

cr. 4 But we never can prove
The delights of His love,
Until all on the altar we lay;
For the favour He shows,
And the joy He bestows,
Are for them who will trust and obey.

mf 5 Then in fellowship sweet
We will sit at His feet,
Or we'll walk by His side in the way;
cr. What He says we will do,
Where He sends we will go,
Never fear, only trust and obey.

Uttered or unexpressed,
The motion of a hidden fire
That trembles in the breast.

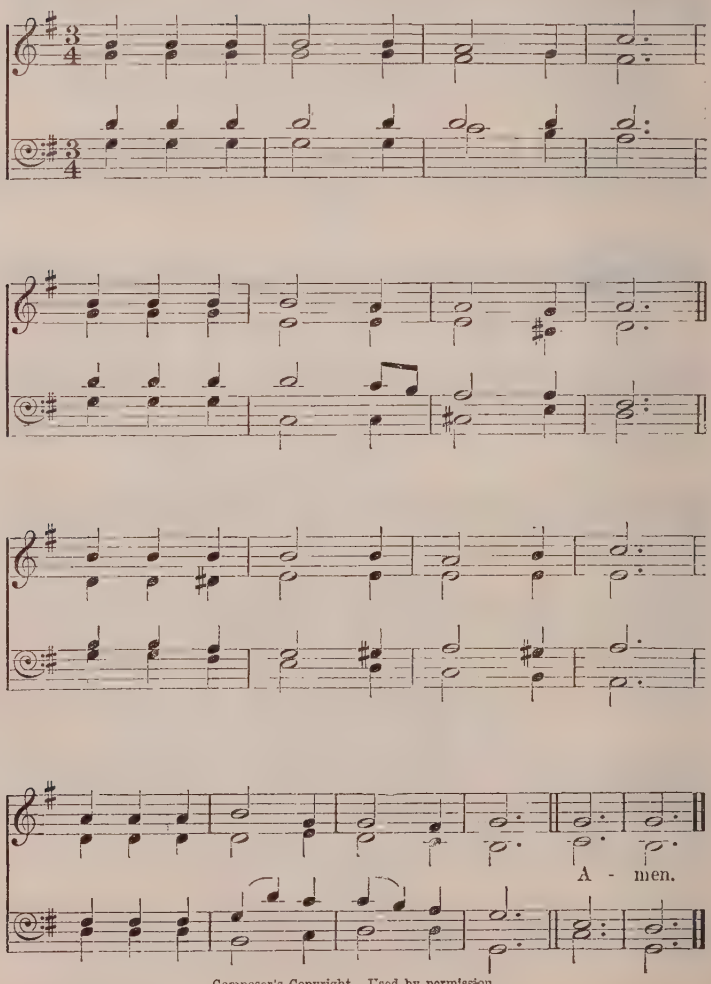
PENTECOST. L.M. W. Boyd.



Composer's Copyright. Used by permission.

1.

f Fight the good fight with all thy might;
Christ is thy strength, and Christ thy right:
Lay hold on life, and it shall be Thy joy and crown eternally.

2.

mf Run the straight race through God's good grace
Lift up thine eyes, and seek His face:
Life with its path before thee lies;
cr. Christ is the way, and Christ the prize.

3.

mf Cast care aside, lean on thy Guide;
His boundless mercy will provide,— Lean, and thy trusting soul shall prove,
cr. Christ is thy life, and Christ thy love.

4.

f Faint not, nor fear, His arms are near;
He changeth not, and thou art dear:
Only believe, and thou shalt see cr. That Christ is all in all to thee.

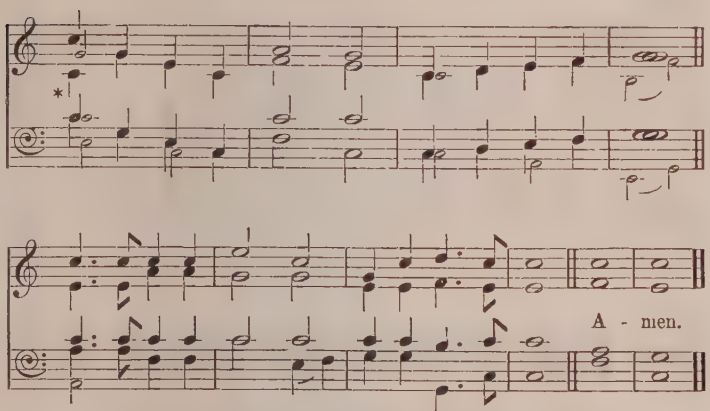
Temptation and Conflict.



* The small notes may be added by the Organist ad lib. C. L. N.

May also be sung to 'Sumus Tibi,' No. 527.

f 1 WHO is on the Lord's side?
Who will serve the King?
Who will be His helpers
Other lives to bring?
Who will leave the world's side?
Who will face the foe?
Who is on the Lord's side?
Who for Him will go?
mf By Thy call of mercy,
By Thy grace divine,
cr. We are on the Lord's side;
Saviour, we are Thine.

mp 2 Jesus, Thou hast bought us,
Not with gold or gem,
But with Thine own life-blood,
For Thy diadem.
cr. With Thy blessing filling Each who comes to Thee,
Thou hast made us willing,
Thou hast made us free.
f By Thy great redemption,
By Thy grace divine,
We are on the Lord's side;
Saviour, we are Thine.

f 3 Fierce may be the conflict,
Strong may be the foe;
But the King's own army
None can overthrow.
Round His standard ranging,
Victory is secure;
For His truth unchanging
Makes the triumph sure.
cr. Joyfully enlisting,
By Thy grace divine,
We are on the Lord's side;
Saviour, we are Thine.

mf 4 Chosen to be soldiers
In an alien land,
Chosen, called, and faithful,
For our Captain's band,
In the service royal Let us not grow cold;
f Let us be right loyal,
Noble, true, and bold.
mf Master, Thou wilt keep us,
By Thy grace divine,
cr. Always on the Lord's side,
Saviour, always Thine.

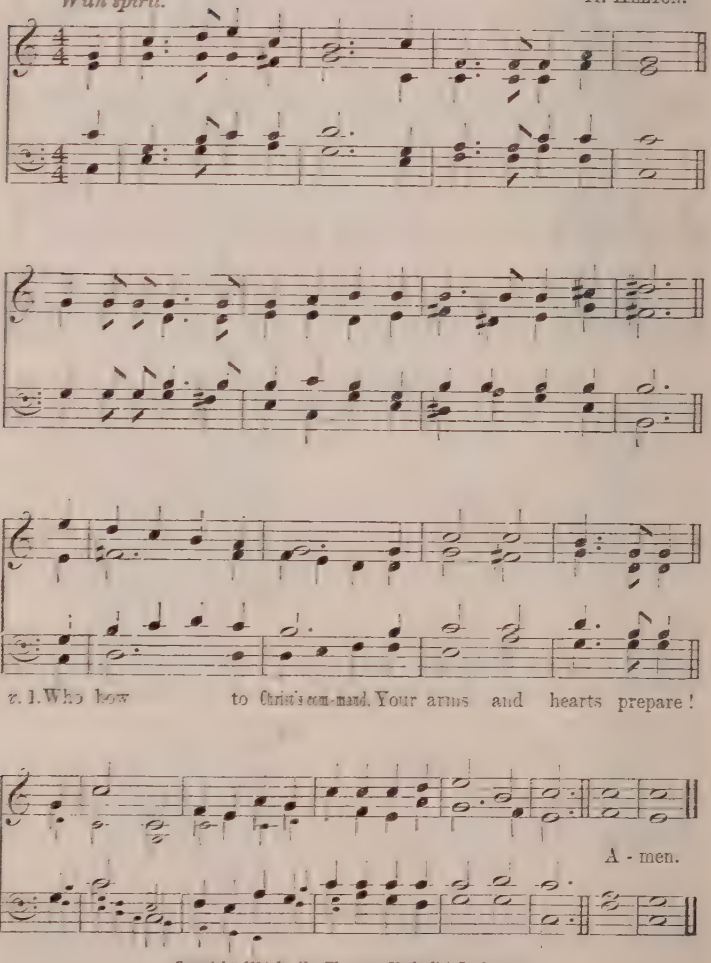
VICTORY. D.S.M. H. KEETON.

With spirit.



Copyright, 1904, by the Wesleyan Methodist Conference.

f 1 Hark, how the watchmen cry,
Attend the trumpet's sound!
Stand to your arms, the foe is nigh,
The powers of hell surround:
Who bow to Christ's command,
Your arms and hearts prepare!
The day of battle is at hand!
Go forth to glorious war!

mf 2 Go up with Christ your Head,
Your Captain's footsteps see;
Follow your Captain, and be led
To certain victory.
All power to Him is given,
He ever reigns the same;
Salvation, happiness, and heaven
Are all in Jesu's name.

f 3 Jesu's tremendous Name Puts all our foes to flight:
dim. Jesus, the meek, the angry Lamb,
cr. A Lion is in fight.
f By all hell's host withstood,
We all hell's host o'erthrow;
And conquering them, through Jesu's blood,
We still to conquer go.

mf 4 Our Captain leads us on;
He beckons from the skies,
And reaches out a starry crown,
And bids us take the prize,—
Be faithful unto death,
Partake My victory;
f And thou shalt wear this glorious wreath,
And thou shalt reign with Me!

To sweetly sing as they?

Powers to win God offers all who work and ask:
Day and night unceasing strive with strength increasing;

mf 1 Listen ! the Master beseecheth,
Calling each one by his name ;
His voice to each loving heart reacheth,
Its cheerfulest service to claim.
Go where the vineyard demandeth
Vinedressers' nurture and care ;
Or go where the white harvest standeth,
The joy of the reaper to share.

f Then work, brothers, work ! let us slumber no longer ;
For God's call to labour grows stronger and stronger :
The light of this life shall be darkened full soon ;
But the light of the better life resteth at noon.

mf 2 Seek those of evil behaviour,
Bid them their lives to amend ;
Go, point the lost world to the Saviour,
And be to the friendless a friend.
p Still be the lone heart of anguish
Soothed by the pity of thine ;
By waysides, if wounded ones languish,
Go, pour in the oil and the wine.

mf 3 Work for the good that is nighest :
Dream not of greatness afar ;
That glory is ever the highest
Which shines upon men as they are.
Work, though the world would defeat you ;
Heed not its slander and scorn ;
Nor weary till angels shall greet you
With smiles through the gates of the morn.

4 To comfort and to bless,
To find a balm for woe,
To tend the lone and fatherless
Is angels' work below.

mf 5 The captive to release,
To God the lost to bring,
To teach the way of life and peace,
It is a Christ-like thing.

Though dim our faith may be:—

We do it unto Thee.

mf 1 DEAR Master, what can children do?
The angels came from heaven above
To comfort Thee: may children too
Give Thee their love?

mp 2 No more, as on that night of shame,
Art Thou in dark Gethsemane,
Where worshipping, an angel came To strengthen Thee.

mf 3 But Thou hast taught us that Thou art
Still present in the crowded street,
In every lonely, suffering heart
That there we meet.

p 4 And not one simple, loving deed,
That lessens gloom, or lightens pain,
Or answers some unspoken need,
Is done in vain,—

cr. 5 Since every passing joy we make,
For men and women that we see,
If it is offered for Thy sake,
Is given to Thee.

mf 6 O God, our Master, help us, then,
To bless the weary and the sad,
cr. And, comforting our fellow-men,
To make Thee glad.

mf 1 Jesus, still lead on,
While life's course is run,
And we'll follow at Thy bidding,
Meekly in Thy footsteps treading;
Guide us by Thy hand
To our fatherland.

2 Should the way be drear,
Let us never fear,
And in days of greatest sorrow
cr. Trust Thee for a bright to-morrow;
For, through weal and woe,
To our home we go.

mp 3 If we feel the smart
Of a wounded heart,
Or if others' griefs oppress us,
cr. Still may patience, Lord, possess us;
Let us, ever true,
Keep the end in view.

mf 4 Order Thou our way
All our earthly stay;
dim. Should our path be rough and thorny,
cr. Give us grace meet for the journey;
Then, when life is o'er,
f Open wide Thy door.

mp 1 FATHER, let Thy benediction,
Gently falling as the dew,
And Thy ever-gracious presence
Bless us all our journey through:
May we ever
Keep the end of life in view.

mp 2 Young in years, we need the wisdom
Which can only come from Thee;
In the morn of our existence
cr. Let us Thy salvation see:
Changed in spirit,
We shall then Thy children be.

mp 3 When temptations shall assail us,
When we falter by the way,
f Let Thine arm of strength defend us;
Saviour, hear us when we pray:
Thou art mighty;
Be Thou then our rock and stay.

ff 4 Praise and blessing, power and glory,
Will we render, Lord, to Thee;
For the news of Thy salvation
Shall extend from sea to sea:
All the nations
Joyfully shall worship Thee.

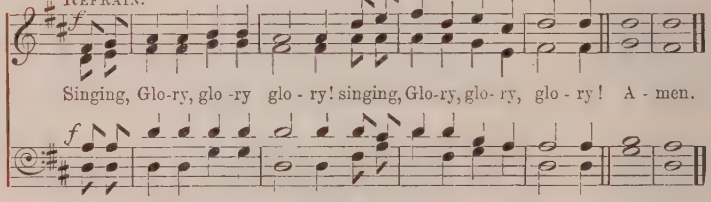
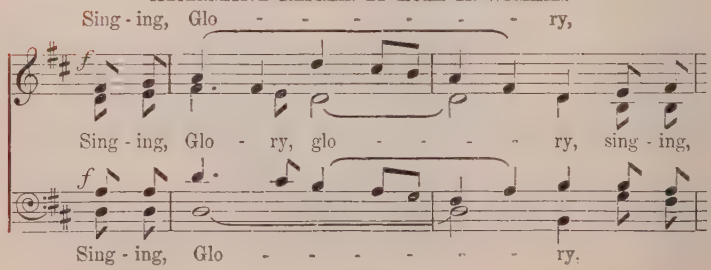
THE FUTURE LIFE.

GLORY. 8.6.8.6.8.

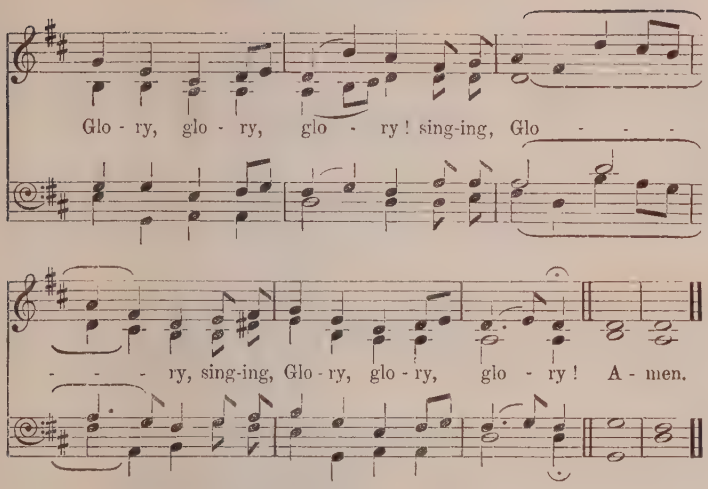


* This may be sung in D flat when the 1st Refrain is used.

Alternative Refrain by Luke H. Wiseman.



The Future Life.



mf 1 Around the throne of God in heaven
Thousands of children stand,
Children whose sins are all forgiven,
A holy, happy band,
f Singing, Glory, glory, glory!

mf 2 In flowing robes of spotless white
See every one arrayed,
Dwelling in everlasting light
And joys that never fade,
f Singing, Glory, glory, glory!

mf 3 What brought them to that world above,
That heaven so bright and fair,
Where all is peace, and joy, and love?
How came those children there?
Singing, Glory, glory, glory!

p 4 Because the Saviour shed His blood
To wash away their sin;
Bathed in that pure and precious flood,
cr. Behold them white and clean,
f Singing, Glory, glory, glory!

mf 5 On earth they sought the Saviour's grace,
On earth they loved His name;
f So now they see His blessèd face,
And stand before the Lamb,
Singing, Glory, glory, glory!

The Future Life.

1.

p Safely, safely gathered in,
No more sorrow, no more sin,
No more childish griefs or fears,
No more sadness, no more tears:
cr. For the life, so young and fair,
Now hath passed from earthly care;
God Himself the soul will keep,
dim. Giving His belovèd sleep.

2.

p Safely, safely gathered in,
Free from sorrow, free from sin,
Passed beyond all grief and pain,
Death for thee is truest gain:
cr. For our loss we must not weep,
Nor our loved one long to keep
From the home of rest and peace, dim. Where all sin and sorrow cease.

3.

p Safely, safely gathered in,
No more sorrow, no more sin;
God has saved from weary strife,
In its dawn, this young fresh life
cr. Which awaits us now above, Resting in the Saviour's love.
mf Jesus, grant that we may meet
There, adoring at Thy feet.

1.

mf EVERY morning the red sun Rises warm and bright;
p But the evening cometh on,
And the dark cold night:
cr. There's a bright land far away,
Where 'tis never-ending day.

2.

Every spring the sweet young flowers
Open bright and gay.
Till the chilly autumn hours
Wither them away:
There's a land we have not seen,
Where the trees are always green.

3.

Little birds sing songs of praise
All the summer long;
But in colder, shorter days
They forget their song:
There's a place where angels sing
Ceaseless praises to their King.

4.

mf Christ our Lord is ever near Those who follow Him;
dim. But we cannot see Him here,
For our eyes are dim:
cr. Yonder is a happy place,
Where men always see His face.

5.

mf Who shall go to that fair land?
All who love the right;
Holy children there shall stand,
In their robes of white:
For that heaven, so bright and blest,
Is our everlasting rest.

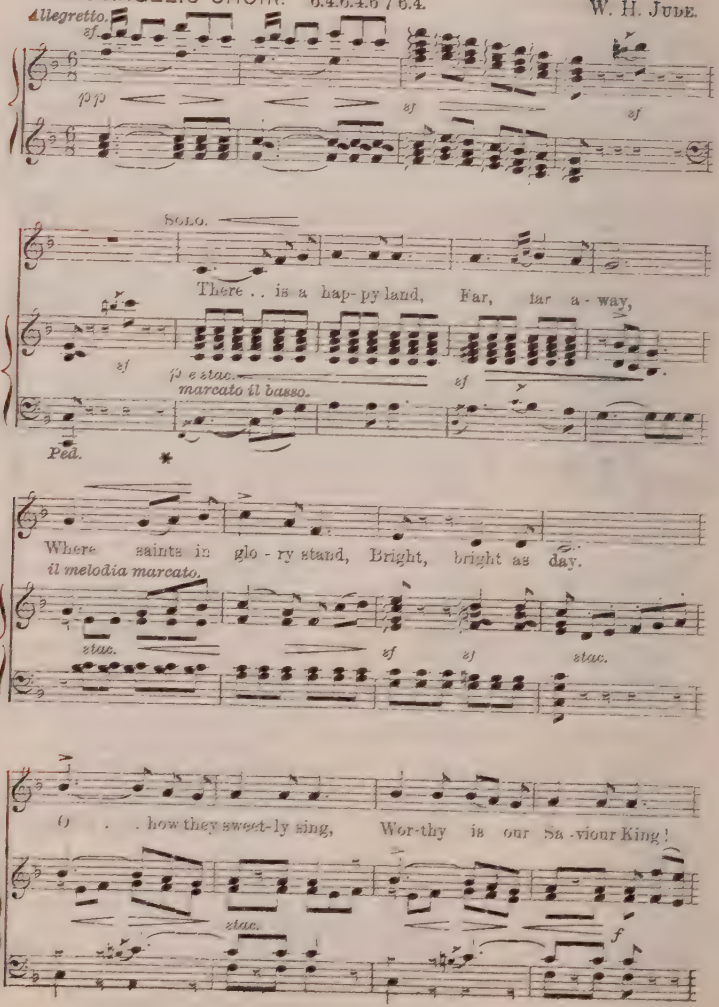
THE ANGELIC CHOIR. 6.4.6.4.6.7.6.4. W. H. JUDE.



The Future Life.

Chorus. With enthusiasm.

mf 2 Come to this happy land,
Come, come away;
Why will ye doubting stand?
Why still delay?
cr. O we shall happy be
When, from sin and sorrow free,
Lord, we shall live with Thee,
Blest, blest for aye.

mf 3 Bright in that happy land
Beams every eye;
Kept by a Father's hand,
Love cannot die.
f On, then, to glory run;
Be a crown and kingdom won;
And, bright above the sun,
ff Reign, reign for aye.

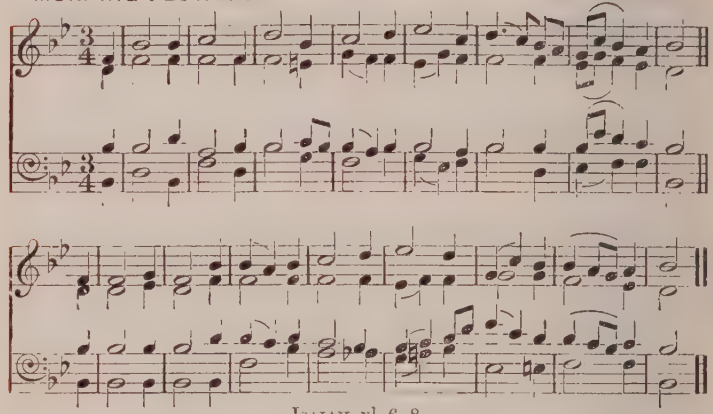
MORNING FLOWERS. L.M. J. Rhodes.



Isaiah xl. 6–8.

mp 1 The morning flowers display their sweets, [unfold,
And gay their silken leaves
As careless of the noontide heats,
As fearless of the evening cold.

2 Nipped by the wind's unkindly blast, [ray,
Parched by the sun's directer
The momentary glories waste,
The short-lived beauties die away.

3 So blooms the human face divine,
When youth its pride of beauty shows; [shine,
Fairer than spring the colours
And sweeter than the virgin rose.

p 4 Or worn by slowly rolling years,
Or broke by sickness in a day,
The fading glory disappears,
The short-lived beauties die away.

mf 5 Yet these, new rising from the tomb, [shine;
With lustre brighter far shall Revive with ever-during bloom,
Safe from diseases and decline.

f 6 Let sickness blast, let death devour,
If heaven must recompense our pains; [flower,
Perish the grass, and fade the
If firm the word of God remains.

Samuel Wesley (the younger).

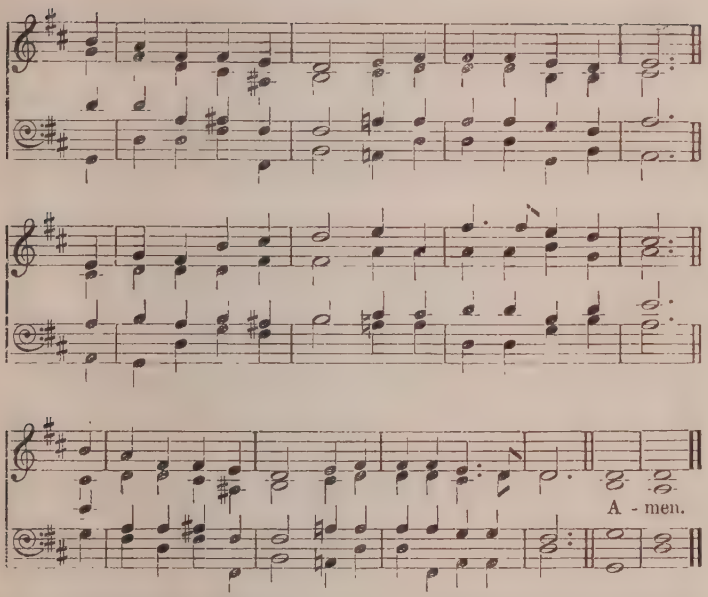
EWING. 7.6.7.6.7.6.7.6. A. Ewing.

* It is suggested that when possible this Tune should be played in D flat.

The Future Life.



mp 1 Jerusalem the golden,
With milk and honey blessed,
Beneath thy contemplation
Sink heart and voice oppressed.
cr. I know not, O I know not What joys await us there,
What radiancy of glory,
What bliss beyond compare!

mf 2 They stand, those halls of Zion,
All jubilant with song,
And bright with many an angel
And all the martyr throng;
cr. The Prince is ever in them;
The daylight is serene;
The pastures of the blessèd
Are decked in glorious sheen.

f 3 There is the throne of David,
And there, from care released,
The shout of them that triumph,
The song of them that feast;
cr. And they who, with their Leader,
Have conquered in the fight,
For ever and for ever
Are clad in robes of white.

mp 4 O sweet and blessèd country,
Shall I ever see thy face?
O sweet and blessèd country,
Shall I ever win thy grace?
cr. I have the hope within me
To comfort and to bless!
dim. Shall I ever win the prize itself?
O tell me, tell me, Yes!

mf 5 Strive, man, to win that glory:
Toil, man, to gain that light;
Send hope before to grasp it,
Till hope be lost in sight.
f Exult, O dust and ashes;
The Lord shall be thy part:
His only, His for ever
Thou shalt be, and thou art.

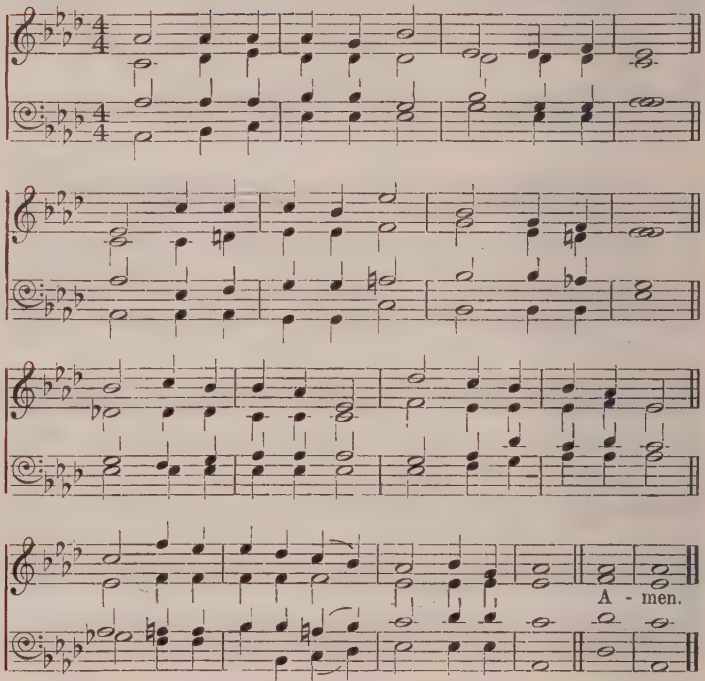
FATHERLAND. 6.4.6.4.6 6 6.4. ARTHUR SULLIVAN.



By permission of Novello and Company, Limited.

mf 1 I'm but a stranger here,
Heaven is my home;
Earth is a desert drear,
Heaven is my home;
Danger and sorrow stand
Round me on every hand;
f Heaven is my fatherland,
Heaven is my home.

mf 2 What though the tempest rage,
Heaven is my home;
Short is my pilgrimage,
Heaven is my home;
And time's wild wintry blast
Soon will be overpassed;
cr. I shall reach home at last,
Heaven is my home.

mp 3 There at my Saviour's side—
Heaven is my home—
I shall be glorified,
Heaven is my home;
p There are the good and blest,
Those I love most and best;
And there I too shall rest,
Heaven is my home.

mf 4 Therefore I murmur not,
Heaven is my home;
Whate'er my earthly lot,
Heaven is my home;
cr. And I shall surely stand
There at my Lord's right hand;
f Heaven is my fatherland,
Heaven is my home.

Nought that defileth
Nought that defileth
Can ever enter in.

2.

mp Saviour, I come to Thee;
O Lamb of God, I pray,
Cleanse me and save me,
Cleanse me and save me,
Wash all my sins away.

3.

Lord, make me, from this hour,
Thy loving child to be;
Kept by Thy power,
Kept by Thy power,
From all that grieveth Thee:

4.

mf Till in the snowy dress
Of Thy redeemed I stand,
cr. Faultless and stainless,

1.

f Ten thousand times ten thousand,
In sparkling raiment bright,
The armies of the ransomed saints
Throng up the steeps of light;
'Tis finished, all is finished,
Their fight with death and sin;
cr. Fling open wide the golden gates,
And let the victors in.

2.

ff What rush of hallelujahs
Fills all the earth and sky!
What ringing of a thousand harps
Bespeaks the triumph nigh!
O day for which creation
And all its tribes were made!
O joy, for all its former woes
A thousand-fold repaid!

3.

What knitting severed friendships up
Where partings are no more!
Then eyes with joy shall sparkle dim. That brimmed with tears of late;
cr. Orphans no longer fatherless,
Nor widows desolate.

4.

f Bring near Thy great salvation,

mf 1 How bright these glorious spirits shine!
Whence all their white array?
How came they to the blissful seats
Of everlasting day?

mp 2 Lo! these are they from sufferings great
Who came to realms of light,
cr. And in the blood of Christ have washed Those robes that shine so bright.

f 3 Now with triumphal palms they stand
Before the throne on high,
And serve the God they love amidst
The glories of the sky.

mp 4 Hunger and thirst are felt no more,

mf 1 How blessed, from the bonds of sin
And earthly fetters free,
In singleness of heart and aim,
Thy servant, Lord, to be;
The hardest toil to undertake
With joy at Thy command,
The meanest office to receive
With meekness at Thy hand;

2 With willing heart and longing eyes
To watch before Thy gate,
Ready to run the weary race,
To bear the heavy weight;
No voice of thunder to expect,
But follow, calm and still:
For love can easily divine
The One Beloved's will.

mp 3 Thus may I serve Thee, gracious Lord,
Thus ever Thine alone,
My soul and body given to Thee,
The purchase Thou hast won;
Through evil or through good
Still keeping by Thy side:
By life or death, in this poor flesh,
Let Christ be magnified.

mf 4 How happily the working days
In this dear service fly!
How rapidly the closing hour,
The time of rest, draws nigh,

And ever where the Master is Shall His blest servants be!

mf 1 LORD of the reapers, hear our lowly pleading:
Thine are the fields that stand all harvest-white;
Thine is the love that human souls are needing,
Ere falls the dusk that deepens into night.

p 2 Oft have we prayed, with longing and beseeching,
Fruit for our toil and glory for Thy cross;
Yet slow the reaping, slow the task of reaching Far distant souls whose distance is their loss.

mf 3 Oft have we asked, entreating much and hoping,
Only to know our toil was not in vain;
Wisdom to find the hearts in darkness groping;
Patience to lead them gently home again.

p 4 Soon o'er our harvest-field the twilight stealeth, Low on its margin stands the solemn sun;
cr. Rising to Thee the reapers' prayer appealeth,— Grant us full sheaves before the day is done!

f 5 So when Thy morning floods the land with glory,
Good will it be to meet and see Thee then,
Learn all the triumphs of Thy love's sweet story,
Lord of the reapers, Hope of sinful men!

Fix Thou the wandering thought,
That those we teach may hear
The great things Thou hast wrought.

mp 3 Speak Thou for us, O Lord,
In all we say of Thee;
According to Thy Word
Let all our teaching be;
cr. That so Thy lambs may know
Their own true Shepherd's voice,
Where'er He leads them go,
And in His Love rejoice.

mf 4 Live Thou within us, Lord;

Be Thou beloved, adored,
And served, with all our powers;
That so our lives may teach
Thy children what Thou art,
And plead, by more than speech,
For Thee with every heart.

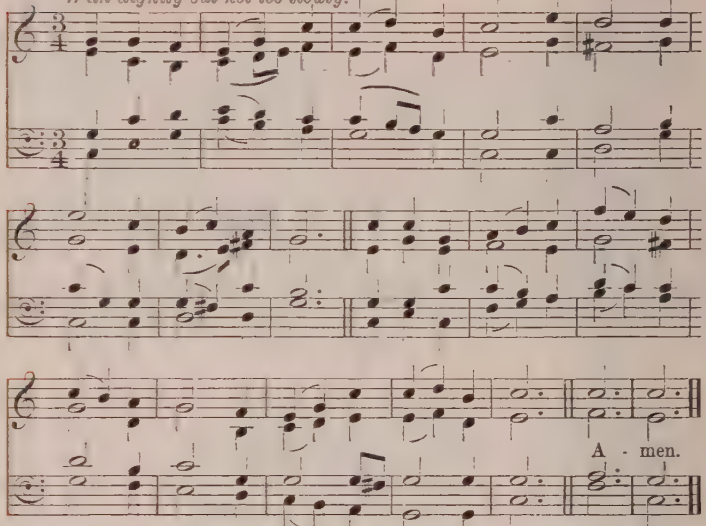
With dignity but not too slowly.



f 1 JESUS shall reign where'er the sun
Doth his successive journeys run;
His kingdom stretch from shore to shore,
Till suns shall rise and set no more.

mp 2 For Him shall endless prayer be made,
And praises throng to crown His head;
cr. His name like sweet perfume shall rise
With every morning sacrifice.

mf 3 People and realms of every tongue
Dwell on His love with sweetest song;
And infant voices shall proclaim
Their young hosannas to His name.

f 4 Blessings abound where'er He reigns;
The prisoner leaps to lose his chains;
dim. The weary find eternal rest;
And all the sons of want are blest.

mf 5 Where He displays His healing power,
Death and the curse are known no more;
In Him the tribes of Adam boast
More blessings than their father lost.

f 6 Let every creature rise, and bring
Its grateful honours to our King;
Angels descend with songs again,
And earth prolong the joyful strain.

f 1 HAIL to the Lord's Anointed; Great David's greater Son!
Hail, in the time appointed,
His reign on earth begun!

cr. He comes to break oppression,
To set the captive free,
To take away transgression,
And rule in equity.

mf 2 He comes, with succour speedy,
To those who suffer wrong;
To help the poor and needy,
And bid the weak be strong:

cr. To give them songs for sighing,
Their darkness turn to light,

dim. Whose souls, condemned and dying,
Were precious in His sight.

mp 3 He shall come down like showers
Upon the fruitful earth:
Love, joy, and hope, like flowers,
Spring in His path to birth:
Before Him, on the mountains,
Shall peace the herald go;
And righteousness in fountains,
From hill to valley flow.

mf 4 Kings shall fall down before Him,
And gold and incense bring:

f All nations shall adore Him,
His praise all people sing;
For Him shall prayer unceasing
And daily vows ascend;
His kingdom still increasing,
A kingdom without end.

ff 5 O'er every foe victorious,
He on His throne shall rest;
From age to age more glorious,
All-blessing and all-blessed.
The tide of time shall never
His covenant remove;
His name shall stand for ever,
His changeless name of Love.

By permission of the Proprietors of The Bristol Tune Book.

mf 1 SWEETLY the holy hymn
Breaks on the morning air;
Before the world with smoke is dim,
We meet to offer prayer.

p 2 While flowers are wet with dews,
Dew of our souls, descend;
Ere yet the sun the day renews,
O Lord, Thy Spirit send.

mp 3 Upon the battle-field,
Before the fight begins,
dim. We seek, O Lord, Thy sheltering shield,
To guard us from our sins.

mp 4 Ere yet our vessel sails
Upon the stream of day,
cr. We plead, O Lord, for heavenly gales
To speed us on our way.

p 5 On the lone mountain-side,
Before the morning's light,
The Man of Sorrows wept and cried.
mf And rose refreshed with might.

mp 6 O hear us, then; for we Are very weak and frail:
cr. We make the Saviour's name our plea,
And surely must prevail.

mf THE sun is on the land and sea,
The day begun; [Thee.
Our morning hymn begins with Blest Three in One;
Our praise shall rise continually
Till day is done.

2.

mp Thy love was ever in our view,
Like stars, by night;
Thy gifts are every morning new,
O God of light;
Thy mercy, like the heavens' blue,
Fills all our sight.

3.

p We do not know what grief or care
The day may bring. [there cr. The heart shall find some gladness
That loves its King;
mf The life that serves Thee everywhere mp O FATHER, hear my morning prayer,

Thy aid impart to me,
That I may make my life to-day
Acceptable to Thee.

2.

May this desire my spirit rule;
And, as the moments fly,
Something of good be born in me,
Something of evil die:

3.

cr. Some grace, that seeks my heart to win,
With shining victory meet;
Some sin, that strives for mastery,
Find overthrows complete.

mf That so, throughout the coming day,
The hours shall carry me
A little farther from the world,
A little nearer Thee.

Cheerfully and lightly.

mf 1 Day's awake!
Another day,
Laughing, calls to me, Forsake
All your dreams, and come away!

2 Day like this
Hath never smiled!
Other days had other bliss:
This is new for man and child.

3 For anew
Is born the world,
Garnished, washed in scented dew,
And a thousand flowers uncurled.

4 Nor again,
For evermore,
Quite the same world will be seen,
Or the same sky circle o'er.

cr. 5 Therefore I,
My Father, pray,
That no golden chance may fly,
Missed and lost by me to-day.

May also be sung to 'Evening Hymn,' No. 51.

f 1 GLORY to Thee, my God, this night,
For all the blessings of the light:
Keep me, O keep me, King of kings,
Beneath Thine own almighty wings!

p 2 Forgive me, Lord, for Thy dear Son,
The ill that I this day have done;
That with the world, myself, and Thee,
I, ere I sleep, at peace may be.

mp 3 Teach me to live, that I may dread
The grave as little as my bed;
Teach me to die, that so I may
cr. Rise glorious at the awful day.

p 4 O may my soul on Thee repose,
And may sweet sleep mine eyelids close;
mf Sleep that may me more vigorous make
To serve my God when I awake!

p 5 If in the night I sleepless lie,
My soul with heavenly thoughts supply;
Let no ill dreams disturb my rest,
No powers of darkness me molest.

Unis. f 6 Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Help of the helpless, O abide with me!

2.

p Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away;

And love's blind instinct made them bold
To crave Thy presence through the night.
dim. As night descends, we too would pray,—
O leave us not at close of day!

mf 2 Did not their hearts within them burn?
And though their Lord they failed to know
Did not their spirits inly yearn!
They could not let the Stranger go.
dim. Much more must we who know Thee pray,—
O leave us not at close of day!

f 3 The hours of day are glad and good,
And good the gifts Thy hand bestows,—
The body's health, the spirit's food,
And rest, and after rest repose.
We would not lose day's golden gains;
dim. So stay with us as daylight wanes.

mf 4 Perchance we have not always wist
Who has been with us by the way;
Amid day's uproar we have missed
Some word that Thou hast had to say.
dim. In silent night, O Saviour dear,
We would not fail Thy voice to hear.

p 5 Day is far spent, and night is nigh;
Stay with us, Saviour, through the night:
Talk with us, touch us tenderly,
Lead us to peace, to rest, to light;
cr. Dispel our darkness with Thy face,
Radiant with resurrection grace.

The Church on earth rejoices
To join with these to-day;
In every province and nation

On this holy day,
For Thy gracious presence
Humbly do we pray:
cr. With the crown of glory
On Thy royal brow,
Come to Thine own kingdom
While our hearts we bow.
mf Jesu! Lord and Saviour!
On this holy day,
Let Thy gracious presence

On the world, so full of care;
Bidding man forget his labour,
Calling to the house of prayer.
cr. O sweet and strong, His saints among,
We sing to God our Sabbath song.

2.

mf 'Tis the day when man's Redeemer
Rose triumphant o'er the grave;
cr. Sealing thus His work completed,
Telling thus His power to save.
ff Then loud and long, to Christ so strong
To save the lost, we raise our song.

3.

mf 'Tis the day whose rest and gladness
Show what all my life should be;
Yielding all by faith to Jesus,
Finding Jesus all to me.
cr. O how I long, in Christ made strong,
To sing each day faith's Sabbath song.

4.

p 'Tis the day whose calm, so holy,
Shadows forth the better rest,
cr. Where the crownèd saints are singing
With their Lord, supremely blest.
mf 'Twill not be long till mid that throng
We sing th' eternal Sabbath song.

mf Pleasant are Thy courts above,
In the land of light and love;
Pleasant are Thy courts below,
In this land of sin and woe.
O! my spirit longs and faints
For the converse of Thy saints, cr. For the brightness of Thy face,
For Thy fulness, God of grace!

2.

mp Happy birds that sing and fly
Round Thy altars, O Most High!
Happier souls that find a rest
In a heavenly Father's breast!
Like the wandering dove that found
No repose on earth around,
They can to their ark repair,
And enjoy it ever there.

3.

mf Happy souls! their praises flow
Even in this vale of woe;
Waters in the desert rise,
Manna feeds them from the skies.
cr. On they go from strength to strength, [length;
Till they reach Thy throne at
At Thy feet adoring fall,
Who hast led them safe through all.

4.

mp Lord, be mine this prize to win:
Guide me through a world of sin;
Keep me by Thy saving grace;
Give me at Thy side a place.
cr. Sun and shield alike Thou art;
Guide and guard my erring heart:
f Grace and glory flow from Thee;
Shower, O shower them, Lord, on me!

By permission of the Committee of The English Hymnal.

mp 1 THE day Thou gavest, Lord, is ended,
The darkness falls at Thy behest;
cr. To Thee our morning hymns ascended,
Thy praise shall sanctify our rest.

mf 2 We thank Thee that Thy Church unsleeping,
While earth rolls onward into light,
Through all the world her watch is keeping,
And rests not now by day or night.

3 As o'er each continent and island
The dawn leads on another day,
The voice of prayer is never silent,
Nor dies the strain of praise away.

mp 4 The sun that bids us rest is waking
Our brethren 'neath the Western sky,
cr. And hour by hour fresh lips are making Thy wondrous doings heard on high.

f 5 So be it, Lord; Thy Throne shall never,
Like earth's proud empires, pass away;
cr. Thy Kingdom stands, and grows for ever,
Till all Thy creatures own Thy sway.

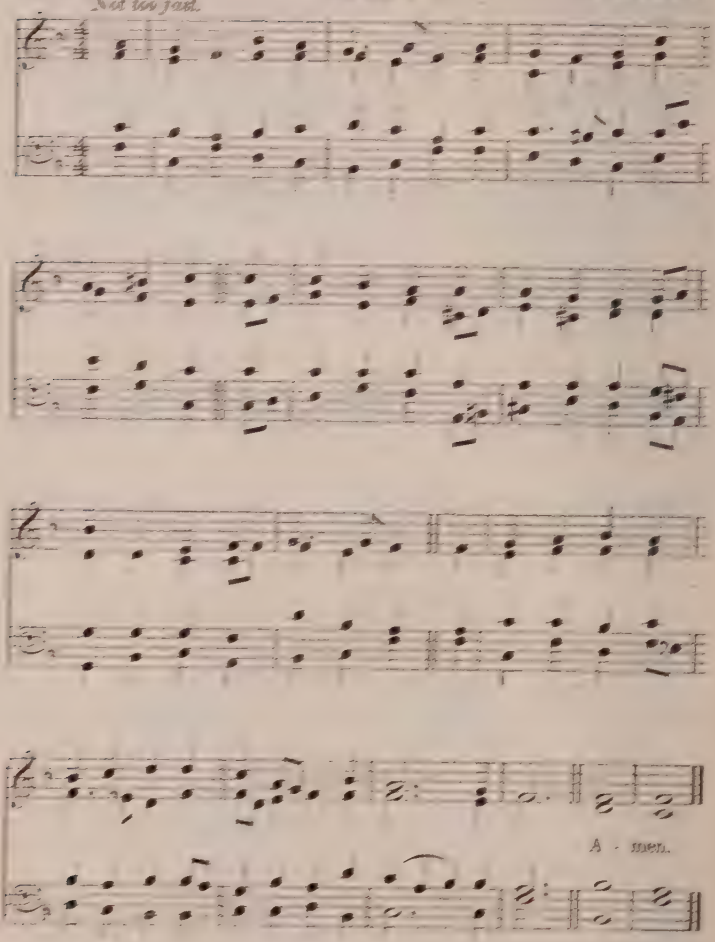
Not too fast.



May also be sung to 'Vienna' No. 561.

mp 1 Sweet Saviour, bless us ere we go;
Thy word into our minds instil;
cr. And make our lukewarm hearts to glow
With lowly love and fervent will.
Through life's long day and death's dark night
O gentle Jesus, be our light.

p 2 The day is done, its hours have run,
And Thou hast taken count of all,—
The scanty triumphs grace hath won,
The broken vow, the frequent fall.
cr. Through life's long day and death's dark night,
O gentle Jesus, be our light.

mp 3 Grant us, O Lord, from evil ways
True absolution and release;
cr. And bless us, more than in past days,
With purity and inward peace.
Through life's long day and death's dark night,
O gentle Jesus, be our light.

f 4 Do more than pardon: give us joy,
Sweet fear, and sober liberty,
And loving hearts without alloy,
That only long to be like Thee.
Through life's long day and death's dark night,
O gentle Jesus, be our light.

mf 5 Labour is sweet, for Thou hast toiled,
And care is light, for Thou hast cared;
dim. Ah! never let our works be soiled
With strife, or by deceit ensnared.
cr. Through life's long day and death's dark night,
O gentle Jesus, be our light.

NATIVITY. C.M. H. Lahee.

f 1 Sing to the great Jehovah's praise!
All praise to Him belongs;
Who kindly lengthens out our days
Demands our choicest songs.

2 His providence hath brought us through Another various year;
We all with vows and anthems new Before our God appear.

mf 3 Father, Thy mercies past we own;
Thy still continued care;
To Thee presenting, through Thy Son,
Whate'er we have or are.

4 Our lips and lives shall gladly show
The wonders of Thy love,
While on in Jesu's steps we go
To see Thy face above.

mp 5 Our residue of days or hours Thine, wholly Thine, shall be;
cr. And all our consecrated powers
A sacrifice to Thee:

6 Till Jesus in the clouds appear
To saints on earth forgiven,
f And bring the grand sabbatic year,
The jubilee of heaven.

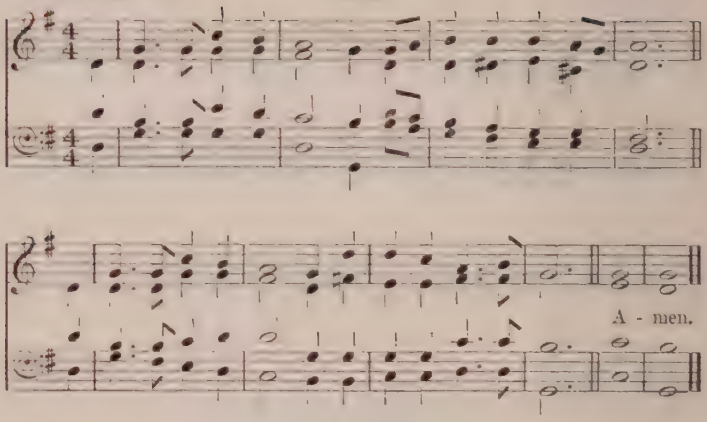
ST. PHILIP (2). 7.6.7.6.



mf 1 ANOTHER year is dawning;
Dear Master, let it be,
In working or in waiting,
Another year with Thee:

mp 2 Another year of leaning Upon Thy loving breast,
Of ever-deepening trustfulness,
Of quiet, happy rest;

3 Another year of mercies,
Of faithfulness and grace;
cr. Another year of gladness
In the shining of Thy face;

mf 4 Another year of progress,
Another year of praise,
Another year of proving Thy presence all the days;

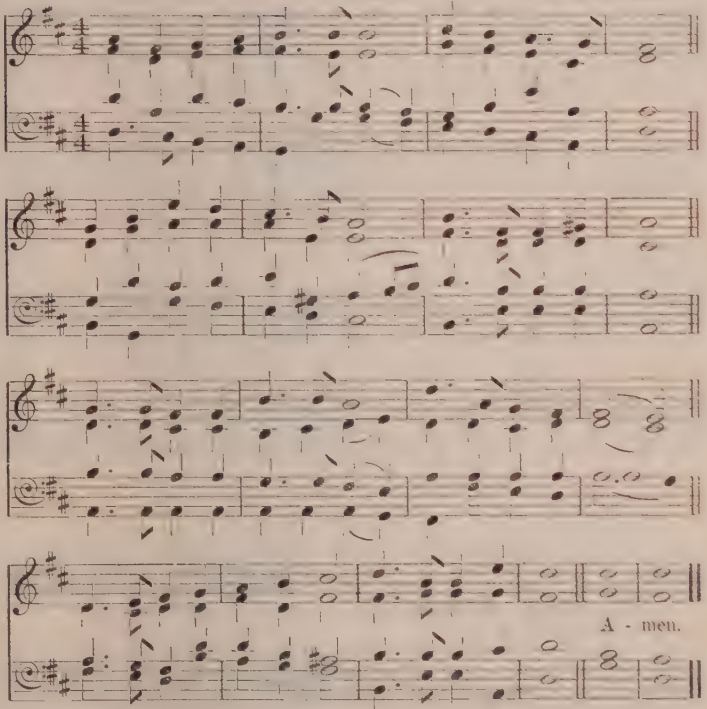
mp 5 Another year of service,
Of witness for Thy love;
Another year of training
For holier work above.

f 6 Another year is dawning;
Dear Master, let it be,
On earth, or else in heaven,
Another year for Thee.

Frances Ridley Havergal.

DEDICATION. 7.5.7.5.7.5. G. A. MACFARREN.



mf 1 FATHER, let me dedicate
All this year to Thee,
In whatever worldly state
Thou wouldst have me be:
Not from sorrow, pain, or care
Freedom dare I claim;
cr. This alone shall be my prayer,—
Glorify Thy name.

mp 2 Can a child presume to choose
Where or how to live?
Can a Father's love refuse
All the best to give?
cr. More Thou givest every day
Than the best can claim;
Nor withholdest aught that may Glorify Thy name.

mf 3 If in mercy Thou wilt spare
Joys that yet are mine,
If on life, serene and fair,
Brighter rays may shine,
f Let my glad heart, while it sings,
Thee in all proclaim,
And, whate'er the future brings,
Glorify Thy name.

p 4 If Thou callest to the cross,
And its shadow come,
Turning all my gain to loss,
Shrouding heart and home,
cr. Let me think how Thy dear Son
To His glory came,
And in deepest woe pray on,
Glorify Thy name!

mf Standing at the portal
Of the opening year,
Words of comfort meet us,
Hushing every fear;
Spoken through the silence
By our Father's voice,
Tender, strong, and faithful,
Making us rejoice.

f Onward, then, and fear not,
Children of the day;
For His word shall never,
Never pass away.

2.

mf I, the Lord, am with thee,
Be thou not afraid;
I will help and strengthen,
Be thou not dismayed:
Yea, I will uphold thee
With My own right hand;
Thou art called and chosen
In My sight to stand.

3.

For the year before us,
O what rich supplies!
For the poor and needy
Living streams shall rise;
mp For the sad and sinful
Shall His grace abound;
For the faint and feeble
Perfect strength be found.

4.

mf He will never fail us,
He will not forsake;
His eternal covenant
He will never break.
cr. Resting on His promise,
What have we to fear?
God is all-sufficient
For the coming year.

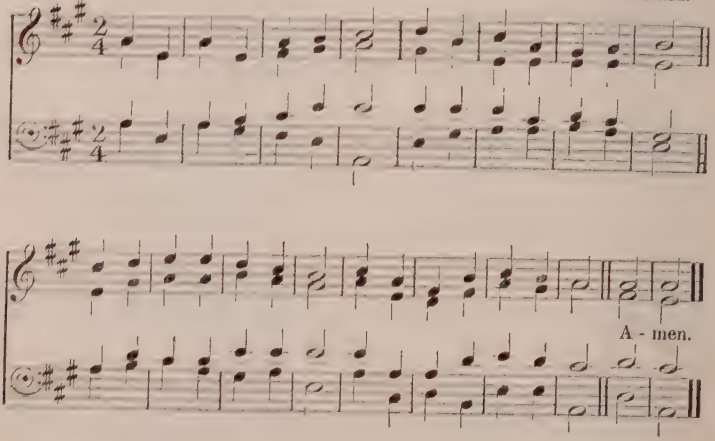
EPHRAIM. [SECOND TUNE.] 7.7.7. H. T. LESLIE.



f 1 Praise, O praise our God and King!
Hymns of adoration sing;
For His mercies still endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.

mf 2 Praise Him that He made the sun Day by day his course to run;
f For His mercies still endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure:

p 3 And the silver moon by night,
Shining with her gentle light;
mf For His mercies still endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.

mf 4 Praise Him that He gave the rain
To mature the swelling grain;
f For His mercies still endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure:

mf 5 And hath bid the fruitful field Crops of precious increase yield;
f For His mercies still endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.

f 6 Praise Him for our harvest store,
He hath filled the garner floor;
For His mercies still endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure:

cr. 7 And for richer food than this,
Pledge of everlasting bliss;
For His mercies still endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.

ff 8 Glory to our bounteous King!
Glory let creation sing!
Glory to the Father, Son,
And blest Spirit, Three in One.

1.

mf We plough the fields, and scatter
The good seed on the land,
But it is fed and watered
By God's almighty hand;
He sends the snow in winter,
The warmth to swell the grain,
dim. The breezes, and the sunshine,
And soft refreshing rain.

f All good gifts around us
Are sent from heaven above;
ff Then thank the Lord, O thank the Lord,
For all His love.

2.

mf He only is the Maker
Of all things near and far;
He paints the wayside flower,
He lights the evening star:
The winds and waves obey Him,
By Him the birds are fed;
Much more to us, His children,
He gives our daily bread.

3.

f We thank Thee, then, O Father,
For all things bright and good,
The seed-time and the harvest,
Our life, our health, our food;
mf Accept the gifts we offer
For all Thy love imparts, dim. And, what Thou most desirest,
Our humble, thankful hearts.

1.

f Sing to the Lord of harvest,
Sing songs of love and praise;
With joyful hearts and voices
Your hallelujahs raise:
By Him the rolling seasons
In fruitful order move;
Sing to the Lord of harvest
A song of happy love.

2.

mf By Him the clouds drop fatness,
The deserts bloom and spring,
The hills leap up in gladness,
The valleys laugh and sing;
f He filleth with His fulness
All things with large increase;
He crowns the year with goodness,
With plenty, and with peace.

3.

mp Bring to His sacred altar
The gifts His goodness gave,
The golden sheaves of harvest,
The souls He died to save:
Your hearts lay down before Him,
When at His feet ye fall,
cr. And with your lives adore Him,
Who gave His life for all.

4.

f To God the gracious Father,
Who made us 'very good';
To Christ, who, when we wandered,
Restored us with His blood;
And to the Holy Spirit,
Who doth upon us pour
His blessèd dews and sunshine,
Be praise for evermore.

f Come, ye thankful people, come,
Raise the song of harvest home:
All is safely gathered in,
Ere the winter storms begin;
God our Maker doth provide
For our wants to be supplied:
Come to God's own temple, come,
Raise the song of harvest home!

2.

mf All this world is God's own field,
Fruit unto His praise to yield;
Wheat and tares together sown,
Unto joy or sorrow grown;
First the blade, and then the ear,
Then the full corn shall appear:
dim. Lord of harvest, grant that we Wholesome grain and pure may be.

3.

p For the Lord our God shall come,
And shall take His harvest home;
From His field shall in that day
All offences purge away;
Give His angels charge at last
In the fire the tares to cast;
cr. But the fruitful ears to store
In His garner evermore.

4.

f Even so, Lord, quickly come,
Bring Thy final harvest home;
Gather Thou Thy people in,
Free from sorrow, free from sin;
cr. There for ever purified,
In Thy garner to abide:
ff Come, with all Thine angels, come,
Raise the glorious harvest home!

mp The sower went forth sowing ;
The seed in secret slept
Through weeks of faith and patience,
cr. Till out the green blade crept ;
And warmed by golden sunshine,
And fed by silver rain,
At last the fields were whitened
To harvest once again.
f O praise the heavenly Sower
Who gave the fruitful seed,
And watched and watered duly,
And ripened for our need.

2.

mf Behold ! the heavenly Sower
Goes forth with better seed,
The word of sure salvation,
With feet and hands that bleed ;
Here in His Church 'tis scattered,
Our spirits are the soil ;
cr. Then let an ample fruitage Repay His pain and toil.
f O beautiful the harvest
Wherein all goodness thrives,
And this the true thanksgiving,
The first-fruits of our lives.

3.

p Within a hallowed acre
He sows yet other grain,
When peaceful earth receiveth
The dead He died to gain ;
For, though the growth be hidden,
cr. We know that they shall rise ;
Yea, even now they ripen
In sunny paradise.
f O summer land of harvest,
O fields for ever white [raiment,
With souls that wear Christ's
With crowns of golden light !

4.

mf One day the heavenly Sower
Shall reap where He hath sown,
And come again rejoicing,
And with Him bring His own ;
mp And then the fan of judgment
Shall winnow from His floor
The chaff into the furnace
That flameth evermore.
p O holy, awful Reaper,
Have mercy in the day
Thou puttest in Thy sickle,
And cast us not away.

f To Thee, O Lord, our hearts we raise
In hymns of adoration,
To Thee bring sacrifice of praise
With shouts of exultation;
Bright robes of gold the fields adorn,
The hills with joy are ringing,
The valleys stand so thick with corn
That even they are singing.

2.

mf And now, on this our festal day,
Thy bounteous hand confessing,
Before Thee thankfully we lay
The first-fruits of Thy blessing.
By Thee the souls of men are fed
With gifts of grace supernal;
dim. Thou who dost give us earthly bread,
Give us the bread eternal.

3.

mp We bear the burden of the day,
And often toil seems dreary;
But labour ends with sunset ray,
And rest comes for the weary:
cr. May we, the angel-reaping o'er,
Stand at the last accepted,
Christ's golden sheaves for ever more
To garners bright elected.

4.

f O blessèd is that land of God
Where saints abide for ever,
Where golden fields spread far and broad,
Where flows the crystal river.
The strains of all its holy throng
With ours to-day are blending;
Thrice blessèd is that harvest song
Which never hath an ending.

Bloom from the garden, and flowers from the field,
Gifts for the stricken ones, knowing Thou carest
More for the love than the wealth that we yield.

p 2 Send, Lord, by these to the sick and the dying;
Speak to their hearts with a message of peace;
Comfort the sad, who in weakness are lying;
Grant the departing a gentle release.

cr. 3 Raise, Lord, to health again those who have sickened,
Fair be their lives as the roses in bloom;
Give of Thy grace to the souls Thou hast quickened,

Temperance.

f 1 God save the nation mp From the fell curse of drink,
Lest we beneath it sink:
From greed of golden gain,
Heedless of other's pain;
mf From all of sin and shame
cr. That sullies its fair fame, ff God save the nation!

mf 2 God save the drunkard!
The demon is within,
It drives him into sin;
The maddening thirst compels,
All nobler impulse quells:
Then, helpless in that day,
cr. We for our brother pray,—
God save the drunkard!

mf 3 God save his children,
Lest bright and sunny days,
And simple, happy ways
dim. Should clouded be by fears,
Spoilt by a child's sad tears;
For they, alas! must know
Drink's fellowship with woe:
God save his children!

mp 4 God save his kindred!
Not theirs, not theirs the vice;
Yet theirs to pay the price
In bleeding, broken heart,
In hidden, bitter smart;—
A loved one's selfish wrong
Has silenced all life's song:
God save his kindred!

mf 5 God save me also
From baser appetite,
From all that is not right;
From sanctioning this wrong
Because it is so strong;
From mood that cries, His pain
Appeals to me in vain:
God save me also!

f GOD bless the land whose coasts
The nation proudly boasts Contain no slave:
From inward tyranny
Set Thou our people free;
God give sobriety,
Our empire save.

2.

mf With hope and courage fill
The man of broken will,
Spirit of grace!
All failing life renew,
All wilfulness subdue,
cr. And with Thy power endue
Our British race.

3.

Who quiver with the shame,
dim. And bend beneath the blame
That rests upon the name
Of kith and kin.

mf Thou to whom the sick and dying
Ever came, nor came in vain,
Still with healing words replying
To the wearied cry of pain,
p Hear us, Jesu, as we meet,
Suppliants at Thy mercy-seat.

2.

mp Every care, and every sorrow,
Be it great, or be it small,
Yesterday, to-day, to-morrow,
When, where'er it may befall,
p Lay we humbly at Thy feet,
Suppliants at Thy mercy-seat.

3.

mp Still the weary, sick, and dying
Need a brother's, sister's care;
On Thy higher help relying,
May we now their burden share,
cr. Bringing all our offerings meet,
Suppliants at Thy mercy-seat.

4.

mp May each child of Thine be willing,
Willing both in hand and heart,
All the law of love fulfilling,
Ever comfort to impart,
cr. Ever bringing offerings meet,
Suppliant to Thy mercy-seat.

5.

mf So may sickness, sin, and sadness
To Thy healing power yield,
cr. Till the sick and sad, in gladness,
Rescued, ransomed, cleansèd, healed,
f One in Thee together meet,
Pardoned at Thy judgment-seat.

f Thine arm, O Lord, in days of old,
Was strong to heal and save;
It triumphed o'er disease and death,
O'er darkness and the grave.
p To Thee they went—the blind, the dumb,
The palsied, and the lame,
The leper with his tainted life,
The sick with fevered frame:

2.

mf And lo! Thy touch brought life and health,
Gave speech, and strength, and sight;
And youth renewed and frenzy calmed Owned Thee, the Lord of light.
f And now, O Lord, be near to bless,
Almighty as of yore,
In crowded street, by restless couch,
As by Gennesaret's shore.

3.

mf Though love and might no longer heal
By touch, or word, or look;
Though they who do Thy work must read
Thy laws in Nature's book:
mp Yet come to heal the sick man's soul,
Come, cleanse the leprous taint;
mf Give joy and peace where all is strife,
And strength where all is faint.

4.

Be Thou our great Deliverer still,
Thou Lord of life and death;
Restore and quicken, soothe and bless,
With Thine almighty breath;
cr. To hands that work and eyes that see Give wisdom's heavenly lore,
f That whole and sick, and weak and strong,
May praise Thee evermore.

THE BEGINNING OF THE YEAR.

1.

mf GOD, whoof old hast formed the earth

f We come Thy praise to sing ;
We crown Thee, glorious King,
Our Sun and Shield :
Help us to love the light,
Help us to do the right,
Teach Thou our hands to fight,
And never yield.

2.

mf Close walking at Thy side,
Let nought our ranks divide ;
For we are Thine :
Keep in the evil day,
Keep on the sunny way,
Help us to watch and pray,
Saviour divine.

3.

p When sin our heart assails,
When faith or courage fails,
Take Thou our part :
cr. Bid faith and hope return,
Let love intensely burn,
So may we ever learn
f How strong Thou art.

4.

mf O Jesu, ever-blessed,
Give us Thy joy, Thy rest,
And keep Thine own :
cr. Save us from self and sin,
Make us all pure within ;
f Then take Thy conquerors in
To share Thy throne.

Though thou shouldst see thine heart's delight Borne from thee by their swoop.

mf Lord of our lives, who hast ransomed us all
In Thy service our freedom to gain,
Pilgrims and soldiers, we come at Thy call,
The good fight of the faith to maintain.
cr. For the strength to be true to Thy Spirit we pray,
That we follow the path Thou hast trod,
f And with anthems of Zion we lighten the way
As we march to the city of God.

2.

mf Life lies before us with work and with joy,
Only self and all sin we disown;
Every good gift we would learn to employ
That the Father to men has made known.
For the glory of sunset empurpling the hills,
cr. For the gathering glow of its rise,
We give thanks to the God of all beauty who fills
The fair earth with the gleam of the skies.

f Bold we press on where our Captain doth lead,
He has armed us to ward off the foe;
Courage He lends us in purpose and deed,
And through Him we to conquering go.

When with dangers and terrors we fight,

Loyal first to the kingdom divine,

That our bodies and spirits are Thine.

Thy glorious nature, love, and might;
And draw my spirit's eyes to see
The things concealed from mortal sight;
And in the soul which Thou hast wrought,
O breathe the understanding thought.

2.

Give me, O Lord, right views of Thee,

My life, my end and destiny,
My secret dreams of hope and fear:
O Thou who standst behind it all,

f 1 THERE are three lessons I would write,
Three words as with a burning pen,
In tracings of eternal light,
Upon the hearts of men.

mf 2 Have faith: where'er thy bark is driven—
The calm's disport, the tempest's mirth—
Know this,—God rules the host of heaven,
The inhabitants of earth.

mp 3 Have hope: though clouds environ now,
And gladness hides her face in scorn,
Put thou the shadow from thy brow;
No night but hath its morn.

mf 4 Have love: not love alone for one,
But man as man thy brother call,
And scatter like the circling sun
Thy charities on all.

f 5 Thus grave these lessons on thy soul,—
Faith, hope, and love,—and thou shalt find Strength when life's surges rudest roll,
Light when thou else wert blind.

O God of mercy and of might;
In pity look on those who stray,
Benighted in this land of light.

2.

mp In peopled vale, in lonely glen,
In crowded mart, by stream or sea,
How many of the sons of men
Hear not the message sent from Thee!

3.

mf Send forth Thy heralds, Lord, to call
The thoughtless young, the hardened old,
A scattered, homeless flock, till all
Be gathered to Thy peaceful fold.

4.

f Send them Thy mighty word to speak,
Till faith shall dawn and doubt depart,
To awe the bold, to stay the weak,
And bind and heal the broken heart.

Shall we cease the conflict
And cast away our crown?

The Spirit gives the sword;
We will not cease contending,— dim. Think how in the sacred story

Jesus took a humble grade,
And the Lord of life and glory
Worked with Joseph at his trade.

mp 3 Sons of labour, be like Jesus,
Undefilèd chaste, and pure;
And though passions tempt you sorely,
cr. By His grace you shall endure:
Husband, father, son, or brother,
Be ye gentle, just, and true,
Be ye kind to one another,
As the Lord is kind to you.

mp 4 Sons of labour, go to Jesus
In your sorrow, shame, and loss;
He is nearest, you are dearest
When you bravely bear His cross:
cr. Go to Him, who died to save you,
And is still the sinner's Friend,

f 1 FLING out the banner! Let it float
Skyward and seaward, high and wide;
The sun that lights its shining folds,
mp The Cross on which the Saviour died.

p 2 Fling out the banner! Angels bend
In anxious silence o'er the sign,
And vainly seek to comprehend

OPENING SERVICE No. 1.

(Morning or Afternoon.)

Silence. All Stand. Eyes closed: the School repeats with the Superintendent.

Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in Thy sight, O Lord, my rock, and my redeemer. Amen.

The Superintendent reads: the School sings in response.

The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple.

RAVENSHAW. 6 6.6 6. Weisse's Gesangbuch.

Lord, Thy word abideth,
And our footsteps guideth;
Who its truth believeth
Light and joy receiveth.

The precepts of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes.

When the storms are o'er us,
And dark clouds before us,
Then its light directeth,
And our way protecteth.

The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring for ever: the judgments of the Lord are true, and righteous altogether.

Who can tell the pleasure,
Who recount the treasure,
By Thy word imparted
To the simple-hearted?

Moreover by them is Thy servant warned: in keeping of them there is great reward.

O that we, discerning
Its most holy learning,
Lord, may love and fear Thee,
Evermore be near Thee! Amen.

THE APOSTLES' CREED All repeat.

I BELIEVE in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth:
And in Jesus Christ, His only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary; suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

HYMN. Chosen from the 'Worship' section of the Hymnal.

BRIEF EXTEMPORE PRAYER.

THE LORD'S PRAYER.

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil: For Thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, we call to remembrance Thy loving-kindness and Thy tender mercies; and with grateful hearts we raise to Thee the voice of thanksgiving:

We praise Thee, O God.

For the gift of Thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ; for the story of His life and the inspiration of His example; for all the teaching of Thy Holy Word:

We praise Thee, O God.

For work we are enabled to do; for truth we are learning; for whatever of good there has been in our past lives; and for all hopes and desires that lead us on toward better things:

We praise Thee, O God.

For the beauty and the bounty of the world; for summer and winter; for seed-time and harvest; for all gifts of loveliness and use which each season brings:

We praise Thee, O God.

For all the comfort and joy of life; for our homes, our friends, and all our home blessings; for the love of our companions; for the help and counsel of those who are wiser than ourselves:

We praise Thee, O God.

For all desire and power to help others; for the tasks and trials by which we are trained to patience, self-knowledge, and self-conquest; for everything that has brought us nearer to Thyself and drawn us into truer fellowship with Jesus Christ:

We praise Thee, O God.

For sacred and tender ties which bind us to the other world; for faith which dispels the shadows of earth and fills the last moments of life with the light of an immortal hope:

We praise Thee, O God.

O Thou God of all grace and love, we have praised Thee with our lips: grant that we may also praise Thee in faithful lives. Let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us; and establish Thou the work of our hands upon us.

Yea, the work of our hands establish Thou it. Amen.

Spirit blest, who art adored
With the Father and the Word
One eternal God and Lord,
Hear us, Holy Spirit.

But his delight is in the law of the Lord; and in His law doth he meditate day and night.

Thou whom Jesus from His throne
Gave to cheer and help His own,
That they might not be alone,
Hear us, Holy Spirit.

And he shall be like a tree planted by the streams of water, that bringeth forth its fruit in its season, whose leaf also doth not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper

All our evil passions kill;
Bend aright our stubborn will;
Though we grieve Thee, patient still,
Hear us, Holy Spirit.

The wicked are not so; but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

Come to raise us when we fall;
And, when snares our souls enthral,
Lead us back with gentle call:
Hear us, Holy Spirit.

Therefore the wicked shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

Come, to strengthen all the weak;
Give Thy courage to the meek;
Teach our faltering tongues to speak:
Hear us, Holy Spirit.

For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the wicked shall perish.

Holy, loving, as Thou art,
All Thy sevenfold gifts impart;
Nevermore from us depart:
Hear us, Holy Spirit. Amen.

1—9. Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.
10. Lord, have mercy upon us, and write all these Thy laws in our hearts, we be - seech Thee.

Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, nor the likeness of any form that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them, nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, upon the third and upon the fourth generation of them that hate Me; and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love Me and keep My commandments.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our heárts to | keep this | law. ‖

Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain: for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh His name in vain.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our heárts to | keep this | law. ‖

Remember the Sabbath-day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work: but the seventh day is a Sabbath unto the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates; for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath-day, and hallowed it.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our heárts to | keep this | law. ‖

Honour thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our heárts to | keep this | law. ‖

Thou shalt do no murder.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our heárts to | keep this | law. ‖

Thou shalt not commit adultery.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our heárts to | keep this | law. ‖

Thou shalt not steal.

Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our heárts to | keep this | law. ‖

Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's wife, nor his man-servant, nor his maid-servant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbour's.

Eternal Light! eternal Light!
How pure the soul must be,
When, placed within Thy searching sight,
It shrinks not, but, with calm delight,
Can live, and look on Thee!

God is a Spirit, and they that worship Him must worship in spirit and truth.

The spirits that surround Thy throne
May bear the burning bliss;
But that is surely theirs alone,
Since they have never, never known
A fallen world like this.

Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me.

O, how shall I, whose native sphere
Is dark, whose mind is dim,
Before the Ineffable appear,
And on my naked spirit bear
The uncreated beam?

If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

There is a way for man to rise
To that sublime abode:
An offering and a sacrifice,
A Holy Spirit's energies,
An Advocate with God,—

The Spirit Himself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are children of God.

These, these prepare us for the sight
Of Holiness above:
The sons of ignorance and night
May dwell in the eternal Light,
Through the eternal Love!

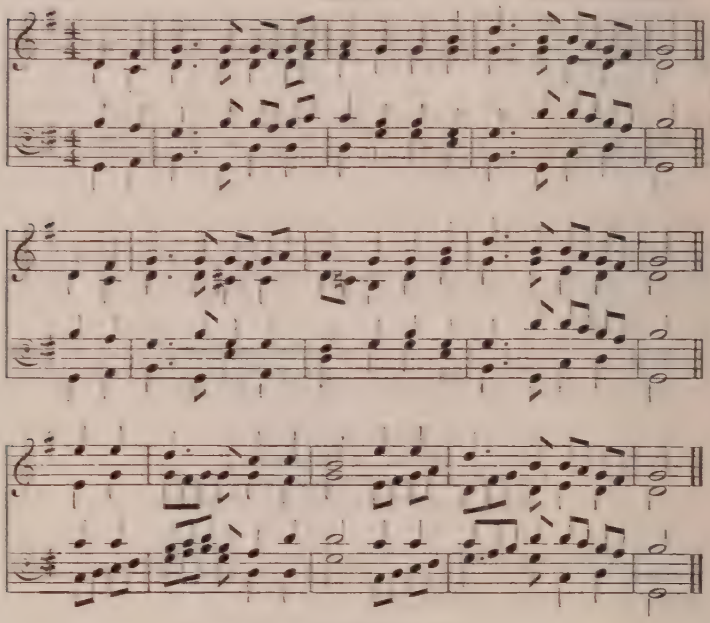
Behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy which shall be to all the people: for there is born to you this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

IRBY. 8.7.8.7.7.7. H. J. GAUNTLETT.



Once in royal David's city
Stood a lowly cattle-shed,
Where a mother laid her baby
In a manger for His bed.
Mary was that mother mild,
Jesus Christ her little child.

And this is the sign unto you: Ye shall find a babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, and lying in a manger.

He came down to earth from heaven
Who is God and Lord of all,
And His shelter was a stable,
And His cradle was a stall.
With the poor, and mean, and lowly Lived on earth our Saviour holy.

For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though He was rich, yet for your sakes He became poor, that ye through His poverty might become rich.

And through all His wondrous childhood
He would honour and obey,
Love, and watch the lowly maiden
In whose gentle arms He lay.
Christian children all must be Mild, obedient, good as He.

And the child grew, and waxed strong, filled with wisdom: and the grace of God was upon Him.

For He is our childhood's pattern:
Day by day like us He grew;
He was little, weak, and helpless;
Tears and smiles like us He knew;
And He feeleth for our sadness,
And He shareth in our gladness.

For we have not a High-priest that cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but one that hath been in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin.

Coming from the winter
Into happy spring,
To our risen Saviour
Easter songs we bring.

Happy, happy spring-time,
Happy Easter Day;
Jesus Christ is risen,
And He lives for aye.

Gentle little flowers,
Strong to cleave the sod,
Tell of Jesus rising,
Gentle Son of God.

Trees that bud and blossom
At the warm spring's breath
Tell us life is greater—
Greater far—than death.

Let us pray.

O God, whose love restores to Thy children the face and voice of holy joy, by the triumph of our Saviour's resurrection: Grant, we humbly beseech Thee, that the joy shining in our looks may flame in our hearts, purifying them, and making our lives holy, through our Lord Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil: For Thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

To our hearts this message
Easter Day should give,—
They who trust in Jesus
Shall not die, but live.

Happy, happy spring-time,
Happy Easter Day;
Jesus Christ is risen,
And He lives for aye.

Not to cold, dark winter
Shall our footsteps tend,
But to that bright summer
Which shall never end.

The Superintendent and School will read alternate verses.

Now in the place where He was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new tomb. There they laid Jesus.

Mary, weeping, beholdeth two angels in white sitting, one at the head, and one at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain. And they say unto her, Woman, why weepest thou?

She saith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid Him. When she had thus said, she turned herself back, and beholdeth Jesus standing, and knew not that it was Jesus.

Jesus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? Whom seekest thou?

She, supposing Him to be the gardener, saith unto Him, Sir, if thou hast borne Him hence, tell me where thou hast laid Him, and I will take Him away.

Jesus saith unto her, Mary.

She turneth herself, and saith unto Him, Master!

Who will climb into the sky,
Bring redemption from on high?
Who will light the dreary grave,
And the dead and dying save?

Love is freer than the wave,
Love is stronger than the grave,
Love is brighter than the sky,
Love has won the victory.

THE APOSTLES' CREED. All repeat.

I BELIEVE in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth:
And in Jesus Christ, His only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary; suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Until with Thee I will one will,
To do and to endure.

The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, meekness, and temperance.

Against such there is no law.

BRIEF EXTEMPORE PRAYER.

Breathe on me, Breath of God,
Till I am wholly Thine,
Until this earthly part of me
Glows with Thy fire divine.

Breathe on me, Breath of God;
So shall I never die,
But live with Thee the perfect life
Of Thine eternity. Amen.

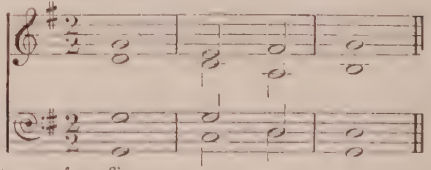
BLACKBOARD SUMMARY OF LESSON, OR ADDRESS.

ALL STAND.

Behold, I send forth the promise of My Father upon you. For to you is the promise:

And to | your | children : ‖

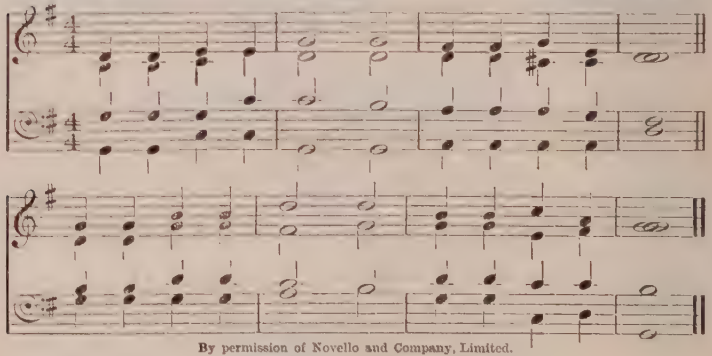


And to all that are afar off.

Even as many as the Lórd our | God shall | call. ‖

May we be kept this night from all evil:
From all our enemies, visible and invisible.
In the mercies of God the Father,
In the merits of God the Son,
And in the continual grace of God the Holy Ghost.

NORTH COATES. 6.5.6.5. T. R. Matthews.



By permission of Novello and Company, Limited.

Heavenly Father, bless us;
Jesus, be our Friend;
Holy Spirit, guide us
To our journey's end.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

Hymn: No. suggested 539.

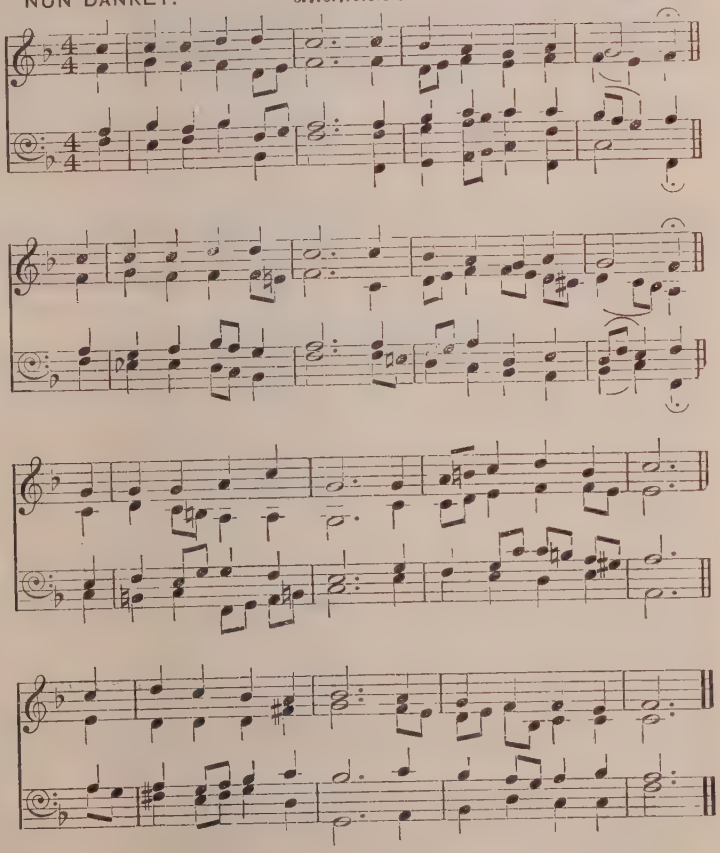
And, behold, Boaz came from Bethlehem, and said unto the reapers, The Lord be with you.

And they answered him, The Lord bless thee.

NUN DANKET. 6.7.6.7.6.6.6.6. M. RÜCKERT.



Now thank we all our God,
With hearts, and hands, and voices,
Who wondrous things hath done,
In whom His world rejoices;
Who, from our mothers' arms,
Hath blessed us on our way
With countless gifts of love,
And still is ours to-day.

Let us pray.

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation: But deliver us from evil: For Thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

While the earth remaineth, seed-time and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease.

Every moving thing that liveth shall be food for you: as the green herb have I given you all.

Let us now fear the Lord our God, that giveth rain, both the former and the latter, in its season, that reserveth unto us the appointed weeks of the harvest.

Because no rain hath been in the land, the ploughmen were ashamed.

The slothful will not plough by reason of the winter;

Therefore he shall beg in harvest, and have nothing.

If my land cry out against me, and the furrows thereof weep together; if I have eaten the fruits thereof without money, or have caused the owners thereof to lose their life;

Let thistles grow instead of wheat, and cockle instead of barley.

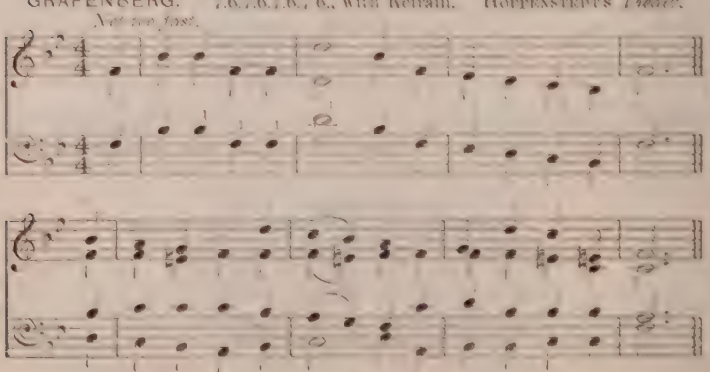
When thou reapest thine harvest in thy field, and hast forgot a sheaf in the field, thou shalt not go again to fetch it: it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow: that the Lord thy God may bless thee in all the work of thine hands.

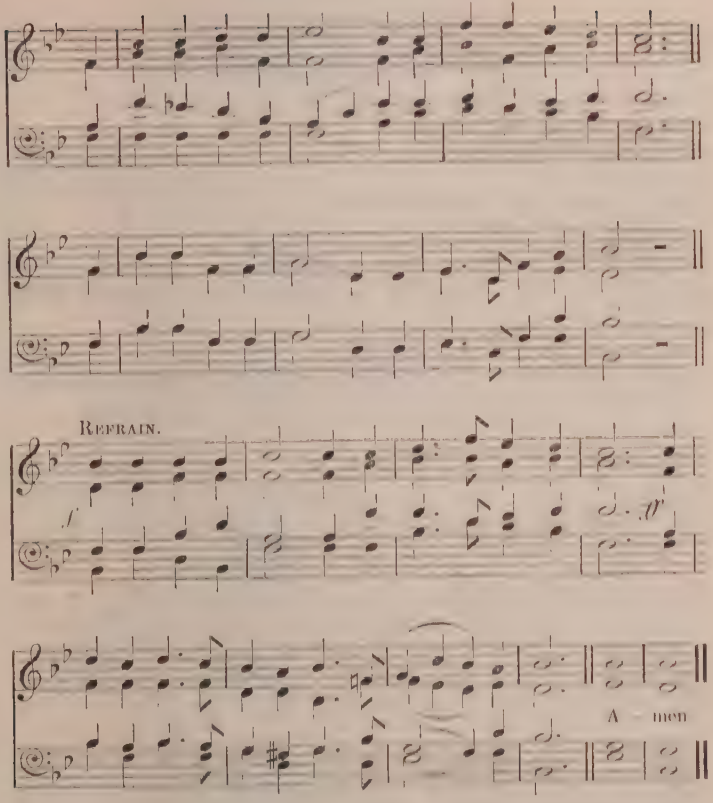
Give alms of thy goods, and never turn thy face from any poor man: and then the face of the Lord shall not be turned away from thee.

Neither is he that planteth anything, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase. We are God's fellow-workers; ye are God's husbandry.

GRAFENBERG. 7.6.7.6.7.6.7 6., with Refrain. HOFFENSTEDT'S Lieder.

Not too fast.





We plough the fields, and scatter
The good seed on the land,
But it is fed and watered
By God's almighty hand;
He sends the snow in winter,
The warmth to swell the grain,
The breezes and the sunshine,
And soft refreshing rain.
All good gifts around us
Are sent from heaven above;
Then thank the Lord, O thank the Lord,
For all His love. Amen.

HYMN OF THANKSGIVING.

BLACKBOARD SUMMARY OF LESSON, OR ADDRESS.

ALL STAND.

Thou crownest the year with Thy goodness.
The hills are girded with joy.
The pastures are clothed with flocks.
The valleys are covered over with corn.

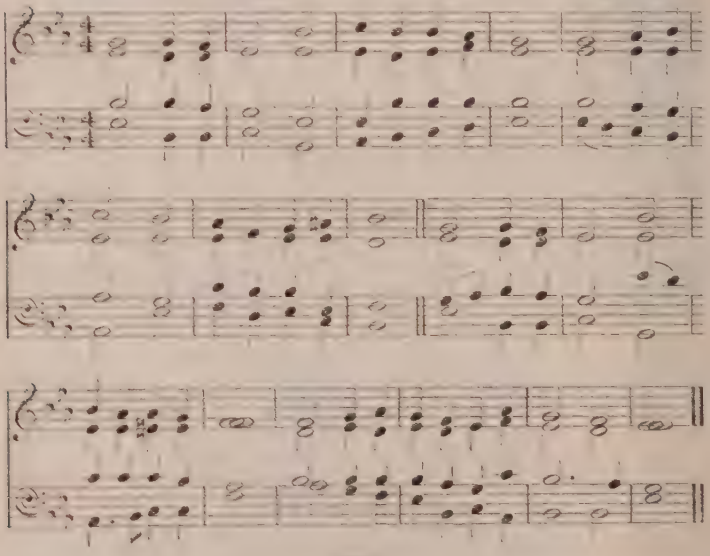
Let the peoples praise Thee. O God; let all the peoples praise Thee.

The earth hath yielded her increase:
God, even our own God, shall bless us.

God shall bless us; and all the ends of the earth shall fear Him.

The teachers and senior classes will sing softly.

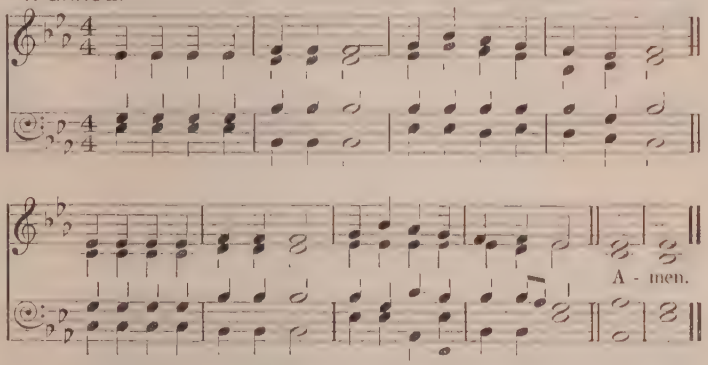
EVENTIDE. 10.10 10.10. W. H. MONK.



Sow in our hearts the seeds of Thy dear love,
That we may reap contentment, joy, and peace;
And when at last our earthly labours cease,
Grant us to join Thy harvest home above.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

A GRACE. 7 7. 7 7. Arr. from P. P. Bliss.



Thou art great, and Thou art good;
And we thank Thee for this food:
By Thy hand must all be fed;
Give us, Lord, our daily bread. Amen.

INDEX OF FIRST LINES.

With reference to the hymns for which John and Charles Wesley were jointly responsible, the compilers of the METHODIST SCHOOL HYMNAL, with some hesitation, have determined to follow the Index of the Methodist Hymn Book (1904), the time having not yet arrived for a final judgment upon the controverted question of authorship.

N.B.—This Index gives the first line of each hymn in alphabetical order, and the name of the tune (or tunes) to which it is set in the Tune Edition. Where no tune is named, the first line of the hymn supplies the title.
